General Information about the University of New Hampshire

Its History

The educational institution, now known as the University of New Hampshire, was established as a college in 1866. At that time, the State of New Hampshire accepted the provisions of the Federal Morrill Act and established the New Hampshire College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts.

This national legislation, which had been approved by President Lincoln in 1862, provided for an allotment of public lands to each state for instituting such a college. In place of land New Hampshire accepted scrip and, selling this for $80,000, founded the College at Hanover in conjunction with Dartmouth College. For a quarter of a century the institution remained at Hanover with an average enrollment of about 25 students. In 1888, through the Federal Hatch Act, a State Agricultural Experiment Station was also established as a part of the College.

Meanwhile, there lay in a legal adviser's safe in Durham the will, made in 1856, of a farmer, Benjamin Thompson of Durham, bequeathing his entire estate to the people of New Hampshire on condition that the State establish on his land a College of Agriculture. No one had known of his proposed philanthropy. The Thompson estate then amounted in land and securities to $300,000, but this was to lie untouched, at compound interest, for a period of 20 years. When, at last, in 1910, it first became available, it amounted to approximately $800,000.

When the terms of the will became known, in 1890, the Legislature promptly made the necessary enactments to establish the College at Durham. The enthusiastic Senior Class of 1892 journeyed down from Hanover to hold its Commencement Exercises in the College's first new building—a cow barn. As rapidly as possible, the State erected four other buildings, Thompson Hall, Conant Hall, Nesmith Hall, and the College Shops, which were ready for occupancy in 1893 by a group of 64 students, including 10 women.

In 1911, the Trustees authorized the setting up of an Agricultural Extension Service which was further developed later by Federal and State appropriations to make possible headquarters, with County Agricultural Extension Agents in each county of the State.

By 1914, constant expansion of the student body resulted in an administrative division of the College into three groups: Agriculture, Engineering, and Arts and Sciences.

Moved by a devoted alumni body and the more than 1,000 students then enrolled, the General Court, in 1923, renamed the College "The University of New Hampshire," creating within it the three Colleges of Agriculture, Technology, and Liberal Arts. Two years later, it permanently provided for the University's support by granting it an annual income of one mill for each dollar of the assessed valuation of all taxable property in the State. In 1947, the General Court increased this amount to one and one-half mills for each dollar of assessed valuation. In 1951, the General Court changed the basis from assessed to equalized valuation.

Today, the University comprises the three Colleges and the Agricultural and Engineering Experiment Stations, the University Extension Service, the Extension Service in Agriculture and Home Economics, the Summer Session, the Graduate School, and the Forestry Summer Camp in the White Mountains.

Its Organization

The government of the University of New Hampshire is vested in a Board of Trustees, 13 in number, of which the Governor of the State, the Commissioner of Agriculture, and the President of the University are members ex officio. Two members, one of whom must be a resident of New Hampshire, are elected by the Alumni of the University and eight members are appointed by the Governor of the State.

The University Senate, a representative body elected by and from the Faculty, has legislative jurisdiction in matters of student government and educational policy. Within the Senate is the Faculty Council which acts in an advisory capacity to the President and serves as an Executive Committee between meetings of the Senate. Details of the University organization are given in the current Staff Handbook of Official Information.

Its Program of Instruction

Resident instruction is offered in the College of Agriculture, the College of Technology, the College of Liberal Arts, the Graduate School, the Summer Session, the Departments of Physical Education for Men and for Women, the Departments of Military and Air Science and Tactics, and the Applied Farming Department. A detailed explanation of the instruction offered in the undergraduate colleges will be found starting on Page 00.

The University reserves the right to withdraw any course or curriculum announced in the Catalogue or to substitute other courses or curriculums therefor. A student must also meet such new regulations as may be subsequently adopted by the University and made applicable to him; and he is also held responsible for such other rules and regulations as may be published in the Official Handbook for Students.

The Graduate School

The Graduate School, which has offered instruction since 1903, has for its objective the bringing together of Faculty and qualified students in a spirit of scholarship and research. The graduate student is given opportunity to specialize in some field of knowledge, and to develop a maturity of thought and attitude toward his professional field, so that both his professional and his cultural life are enhanced. Graduate work is offered by members of the University departments of instruction and research. Administrative functions and supervision of advanced students are delegated to the Dean of the Graduate School and the Executive Council.

Graduate programs are offered by the following departments: Agricultural and Biological Chemistry, Agricultural Economics, Agronomy, Animal Husbandry, Bacteriology, Biology, Botany, Chemical Engineering, Chemistry, Civil Engineering, Dairy Husbandry, Electrical Engineering, Entomology, Horticulture, Mathematics, Mechanical Engineering, Physics, Poultry Husbandry, and Zoology leading to the Master of Science degree; Economics, English, Government, History, Languages, Mathematics, Psychology, and Sociology leading to the Master of Arts degree; and Education leading to the Master of Education degree.

Graduate assistantships are available in a number of departments. The work required may be in the nature of research, teaching, or general service. For information regarding assistantships, one should direct inquiries to the chairman of the department concerned.

A limited number of graduate scholarships are available each year. The recipient of such a scholarship is exempted from the payment of tuition. Requirements for the awards are: 1) A superior undergraduate record, and 2) the successful completion of a qualifying examination administered by the University Counseling Service. For information concerning graduate scholarships one should direct inquiries to the Dean of the Graduate School.

For detailed information concerning admission, requirements for degrees, description of courses open to graduate students, and other matters not covered above, write to the Dean of the Graduate School. The Graduate School issues its own bulletin which may be obtained upon requests to the Office of the Graduate School.

The Summer Session

The Summer Session is an integral part of the University program. Prior to 1922, a Summer School in Biology only had been conducted. Courses are now offered in the Summer Session by the three Colleges and the Graduate School to meet the needs of teachers, administrators, and supervisors of elementary and secondary schools; students who seek special professional preparation or are working for undergraduate or graduate degrees; students who anticipate courses or are supplying deficiencies; qualified and mature persons who wish to take courses for general cultural purposes. Qualified instructors are drawn from the University Faculty and are supplemented by specialists selected for their attainments in particular fields at other institutions. The Catalogue of the Summer Session gives specific information as to courses.

In addition to the offerings available at the University in Durham, summer instruction is given in Forestry and Fish and Game Management at the Forestry Summer Camp.

Applied Farming

Instruction of less than college grade is made available by the University in the Applied Farming Department. The purpose of this Department, organized in the College of Agriculture, is to give the greatest amount of practical training that is possible during a two-year period of time to students who cannot attempt the four-year curriculum. It is directly administered as a separate unit, with its own staff of instructors. Assistance from any of the College departments or personnel in curriculum matters is available. Any high-school graduate of good character, or any student who has completed a minimum of two years of high school and is 18 years of age or over, may be admitted. Two academic years of residence and field training or supervised farm experience during the summer months are required for graduation.

University Degrees

The following degrees are conferred:

Graduate School — Master of Science, Master of Arts, Master of Education, and Master of Science in Engineering.

College of Agriculture — Bachelor of Science in Agriculture, Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Engineering, Bachelor of Science in Forestry, and Bachelor of Science in Home Economics. In the Applied Farming Department, a Certificate of Graduation.

College of Technology — Professional degrees of Mechanical Engineer, Civil Engineer, and Electrical Engineer; Bachelor of Science in Chemistry, Chemical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Physics.

College of Liberal Arts — Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science.

Reserve Officers Training Corps

In co-operation with the Federal Government, the University maintains a Reserve Officers Training Corps as a part of the Federal system to provide systematic military training for school and college students.

While the Federal Government supervises the training, details officers and non-commissioned officers of the Army and of the Air Force as instructors, and provides the necessary equipment, students undergoing this instruction who are members of the R.O.T.C. are in no way members of the military forces of the Government. They remain civilians and do not incur any additional obligation for Military Service by enrollment in the R.O.T.C. However, under the provisions of the National Selective Service Act, certain qualified students may, upon signing a Deferment Agreement, be deferred from induction into the Armed Forces during the period of enrollment in the R.O.T.C. Students formally enrolled in the Advanced Course receive a monetary allowance from the Government. They agree to attend R.O.T.C. Summer Camp and to complete the course of instruction as a prerequisite to graduation.

Students enrolled in the R.O.T.C. will be furnished uniforms which are worn during military instruction, when prescribed. A deposit of $15.00 is required of each student having military clothing and equipment in his possession. At the end of the academic year, or upon severing his connections with the University, the basic student (Freshman and Sophomore) has the deposit refunded to him upon the satisfactory return to the University of all military property loaned — except that a reasonable deduction will be made to cover any damage beyond natural wear and tear, or for the loss of any of the equipment. Students enrolled in the Advanced Course are required to make a deposit of $15.00 prior to receipt of the tailored uniform. This deposit is retained by the University until graduation or until the student is permitted to drop the Advanced Course for other reasons. Upon successful completion of the Advanced Course and commissioning, students are permitted to keep their uniforms.

Army R.O.T.C. students in the First Year Basic Course are offered a general type of instruction while the Air Force students receive general instruction in material peculiar to the Air Force curriculum. Beginning with the Second Year Basic Course (Army), specialized instruction is given in Artillery and Infantry. The Second Year Basic Course (Air Force) is again of a general nature for all students. Students must enroll for the Second Year Basic Course in the same unit, Army or Air Force, in which they were enrolled during their first year. Transfer students are required to enroll in the same R.O.T.C. unit (Army or Air Force) in which they have received training at the previous institution. If no previous R.O.T.C. training has been received, but the student is a veteran, he is expected to enroll in the unit most closely allied to the particular branch in which he served. Veterans of branches of the service other than Army or Air Force may enroll in the R.O.T.C. unit of their choice, subject to acceptance by the unit concerned. Where transfer credits are acceptable, transfer students are not required to make up Military or Air Science for semesters satisfactorily completed at other institutions where R.O.T.C. was not offered; however, in such cases students should consult the Professor of Military Science and Tactics or the Professor of Air Science and Tactics in regard to eligibility for the Advanced Course. Any physically qualified male Junior who completes the entire Basic Course, or any other eligible male student as determined by the R.O.T.C. staff, may apply for enrollment in the Advanced R.O.T.C. Course in order to qualify for a Reserve Commission upon graduation. R.O.T.C. students designated as Distinguished Military Students during their second year of the Advanced Course are eligible to apply for direct appointments as commissioned officers in the Regular Army or Air Force upon graduation. Final selection for the permanent commission in either of the Regular Services is subject to the student maintaining his academic and military class standing until graduation and being designated a Distinguished Military Graduate.

Other Services and Facilities

Extension Services

The University's educational services are carried to all parts of the State by two Extension Services.

THE EXTENSION SERVICE IN AGRICULTURE AND HOME ECONOMICS — Information relating to agriculture and home economics is disseminated to people throughout the State by means of demonstrations, meetings, the press, radio, and individual contacts. Besides furnishing information, this Extension Service promotes its application to situations on farms, in homes, and in communities. It is conducted co-operatively with the United States Department of Agriculture and the county farm bureaus of the State by a staff of 67 members. The staff includes specialists in the fields of Farm Management, Dairying, Forestry, Soils and Crops, Poultry, Horticulture, Marketing, Engineering, Nutrition, Clothing, and Home Management. Information is brought to the people in each county through a field staff of county extension agents, each county having Agricultural, Home Demonstration, and 4-H Club Agents.

Through a co-operative arrangement with the State Forestry and Recreation Commission and the United States Forest Service, eight County Extension Foresters cover the 10 counties of the State.

The Extension Service in Agriculture and Home Economics bridges a gap between the research center and the people of the communities. It presents to them the results of research in easily understandable form so that they may use it. Extension workers assist in the analysis of local problems. They help organize and carry out programs that deal with such problems. They assist in organizing groups when action is needed. They explain and interpret programs of other agencies and they are continually trying to develop initiative and leadership among rural people. The work is conducted on an informal basis and without charge to the individuals who participate.

THE UNIVERSITY EXTENSION SERVICE is designed to meet so far as possible, on a cost basis, group demands from the State at large for educational help of a college type especially in liberal arts and technology. Extra-mural courses with credit and extension courses without credit are developed off-campus to the extent that demand warrants and teaching personnel are available. Classes are usually held weekly; a minimum of 15 enrollees is required. Courses are taught by regular members of the University's resident faculty or by staff members of co-ordinate rank. Information on fees and other details may be obtained from the Director of University Extension, Thompson Hall.

Special courses for the benefit of industry dealing with industrial office organization and management, personnel organization and administration, industrial supervision and foremanship, human relations in industry, sales and sales management, etc., have been developed; a catalogue describing these is available upon application.

Liberal arts courses which are now regularly available in extension include public speaking, speech for teachers, audio-visual education, educational tests and measurements, principles of guidance, public school administration, mental hygiene for teachers, American government, principles of sociology, marriage and family relations.

Designing and building in the Student Workshop.

The University Extension Service operates an audio-visual center, which maintains a library of educational sound and silent films, standard lantern slides, film strips and transcriptions, which are available with the co-operation of the State Department of Education to the schools of this State and northern New England.

It also provides assistance in recreation leadership; makes lecture engagements for faculty speakers; conducts forums; and arranges for institutes, conferences, and special short courses, on or off the campus.

The Agricultural Experiment Station

The Agricultural Experiment Station is concerned with the solving of the more important agricultural problems. It has as its purpose the betterment of rural life by bringing science to agriculture. Typical experimental projects involve the breeding and testing of improved plants and animals, the nature and control of serious diseases and pests of plants and animals, problems in weed control, problems in the management of soils and crops, problems of labor efficiency, and the marketing of farm products. Routine testing of seeds, fertilizers and soils is conducted; plants and insects are identified; blood samples are tested; and post-mortem examinations are made. Bulletins covering a wide range of subjects are printed for free distribution to all persons in the State who have use for them.

The Engineering Experiment Station

The Engineering Experiment Station provides engineering and research facilities for the industries of the State and for various agencies of the State Government. The personnel and facilities of the University are available through this agency to manufacturers for the solution of technical problems.

At the present time, in co-operation with the State Planning and Development Commission, a long-range program devoted to studies of wood-waste utilization is in progress.

An unusual opportunity is provided for properly qualified undergraduate and graduate students to participate in the technological work of the Engineering Experiment Station.

Provisions can be made for the establishment of industrial fellowships by both in-state and out-of-state industries. At the present time, a number of firms have availed themselves of this opportunity to do specialized research in certain industrial fields.

Office of Public Information

Information about University activities is furnished the public through newspapers, magazines, and radio stations by the Office of Public Information. The Office also edits University publications and operates the University photographic service. It co-operates with the Alumni Secretary in the publication of the New Hampshire Alumnus, official alumni magazine of the University.

Council For Sponsored Research

In recognition of the great need for closer association between industry and government and the University in the field of research, in 1949 a Council for Sponsored Research and the Office of University Co-ordinator of Research were created. The Council and the Co-ordinator have as their duties the establishment of University policy with respect to sponsored research, to assist members of the staff and prospective sponsors in framing proposals for research contracts, grants-in-aid and fellowships for graduate students, and, in general, to encourage the development of research in the several departments of the University.

Inquiries concerning the research programs of the University should be directed to the Co-ordinator of Research.

The Bureau of Government Research

The Bureau of Government Research is designed to serve as a clearing house and service agency for problems of government administration at the local and state level, and aims to assist officials and citizens of New Hampshire who are interested in public and governmental problems.

The Forestry Summer Camp

Located in the heart of the White Mountains at Passaconway, the Forestry Camp includes a tract of 400 acres of timberland on which are examples of most of the northern forest types. The property is surrounded by the White Mountain National Forest which makes available to the camp more than a half million acres of the finest woodlands in the East. Students are housed in an attractive building, formerly a summer hotel. It not only affords adequate living facilities but also provides drafting rooms and laboratory space. The boundary of a national game area of 60,000 acres is less than a half mile from camp, and the Bartlett Experiment Forest is only a short distance away. National forest operations are carried on nearby and serve for purposes of instruction. Recreational activities include swimming, fishing, tennis, and mountain climbing. There are 50 mountain peaks within a 10-mile radius. Bartlett, Conway, and North Conway villages are easily accessible.

The Libraries

The Hamilton Smith Library is the main building in the University library system, which includes two branch libraries: the Plant and Animal Sciences Library in Nesmith Hall and the James Hall Chemistry Library. There is also an Engineering Reading Room in Kingsbury Hall. The library is a United States Government Depository Library. The book collection numbers 185,000. Eleven hundred and eighty-one periodicals are received. Of the 78 newspapers regularly checked in, the dailies (including a half dozen metropolitan papers) are placed in the Newspaper Room, the weeklies (among which are numbered most of the New Hampshire weeklies) are sent to Durham Notch Hall. A small and accessible area houses newer books for pleasure reading, and the open stacks give the student every opportunity to familiarize himself with the world of books.

Because the Hamilton Smith Library serves the townsfolk as well as the Faculty and students of the University, there is a children's room (the Charlotte Thompson Room) well stocked with the best in children's literature. This collection, used constantly by the children, provides an unusual laboratory for the students and others who plan to work with children and children's books.

Housed on the second floor is the Art Division. In its exhibit gallery is displayed a constant succession of loan exhibitions selected to appeal to a variety of interests. From this department framed pictures, both originals and reproductions, are lent to students for a semester at a time, for enjoyment in their own rooms. There is a collection of over 2,200 phonograph records, the nucleus of which was a gift from the Carnegie Corporation of New York, and among which are a few long-playing records. There are three listening rooms. The largest of these, used also for group music appreciation, is the Philip Hale Room, which contains the desk, chair, and many of the books of the well-known music critic.

Smoking is permitted in one study-room in the Library.

Museum Collections

Although the University has no museum, there are several collections housed in various buildings. At present, specimens are being collected to illustrate the zoology, geology, entomology, and Americana of New Hampshire. Many New Hampshire collectors and naturalists have made the University their permanent depository.

In Pettee Hall, in the domain of the Home Economics Department, there is a permanent costume collection, numbering more than 500 articles of attire and accessories dating from Revolutionary times. There, too, is the Irma G. Bowen fabric collection, which consists of sample swatches of material, both foreign and domestic.

Mrs. Helen F. McLaughlin, Chairman of the Department, houses part of her extensive china and glass collection on the first floor of Pettee Hall.

Exhibited on the ground floor of Kingsbury Hall is testing machinery built under the direction of Prof. Albert Kingsbury when he was engaged in the early development of his famous thrust bearing on the UNH campus more than 50 years ago.

A permanent bird collection, begun by the Zoology department in 1908, is found in glass cases along the first floor corridor of Nesmith Hall.

Student Life on Campus

Student Personnel Services

University responsibilities for student activities and welfare outside the formal academic organization are co-ordinated through the Dean of Student Administration. The activities in this area include supervision of student health, counseling, living arrangements, employment service, extra-curricular activities, student financing, academic record keeping, maintenance of academic standards, and protection of personal standards of conduct.

The following administrative officers are concerned with the operation of the Student Personnel Services: Everett B. Sackett, Dean of Student Administration; Ruth J. Woodruff, Dean of Women; William A. Medesy, Dean of Men; John A. MacDonald, M.D., University Physician; Doris Beane, University Recorder; Jere A. Chase*, Director of Admissions; Paul H. McIntire, Director of Counseling; Warren C. Bowers, Psychologist; Doris Gregory, Counselor; Kathleen Beckingham, Counselor and Assistant Director of Admissions; Herbert A. Carroll, Consulting Clinical Psychologist; Eugene R. Shippen, Jr., M.D.,

*On leave for military service.

Skating is a popular winter activity.

Consulting Psychiatrist; Donald H. Richards, Director of Placement and Acting Director of Admissions; Maxine Armstrong, Director, Durham Notch Hall; Gerard S. Griffen, M.D., Acting Assistant Physician; William D. Crandall, M.D., Acting Assistant Physician; Harriet B. Nason, Supervising Nurse; Harry R. Carroll, Counselor.

Admissions Office

The function of the Admissions Office is to contact prospective college students, to process their applications, to correspond with them, to distribute bulletins and catalogues, and finally, to select students. The Admissions Office is located in Thompson Hall, but a great deal of the contact work takes place in the high schools of the State.

School Testing Service

The School Testing Service is in the Counseling Service. Its chief function is to furnish the schools of the State the benefits of the University's trained personnel and testing facilities. The Service offers such programs as the High-School Survey, the Co-operative Guidance Program, as well as rental, scoring, consulting, and other professional technical services to the public schools of New Hampshire. Other programs are arranged to meet the needs of the schools.

Recorder's Office

The Recorder's Office conducts registration, maintains the academic records, issues grades and transcripts, checks the students' records and advises them of their progress toward graduation, makes up the student directory, Commencement lists, honor rolls and compiles other statistical data. Its services include an information desk and reception center. It is closely allied with the Admissions Office. Veterans' routine contacts with the Veterans' Administration regarding educational benefits are handled through this office.

Counseling Service

The Counseling Service, without cost, assists students in discovering vocational abilities and aptitudes, in self-evaluation, and in the development of sound plans and objectives. It furnishes students with occupational and educational information as to requirements and opportunities. Personal counsel and guidance are offered to those students facing problems of emotional and social adjustment. It is the University's official testing agency charged with the administration of large-scale testing programs such as the Graduate Record Examination, the Orientation Week Program, and others of a similar nature. The Counseling Service conducts the School Testing Service and is available to all requesting technical information concerning problems of guidance and testing.

Orientation Week was instituted at the University of New Hampshire in 1924. It is evident from a study of the results of the activities of this Week that it has served as a valuable means of adjusting new students, of creating right attitudes toward college work, and of minimizing the usual delays during the first few weeks of the regular term. Orientation Week also affords an opportunity for the students to learn to know each other, to organize their efforts, to work together, to play together, and to become acquainted with the Campus, the buildings, the Faculty, and with the courses of study and the traditions of the University.

Attendance of all new students throughout Orientation Week shall be obligatory.

Dean of Women

The Office of the Dean of Women assigns rooms in the Women's Dormitories and supervises the social aspects of women's residences. Approval of the housing of off-campus women students who are not living at home is also a function of this office. It reviews the plans of all social occasions requiring chaperonage and assigns rooms for the evening meetings of student organizations. A current file of the officers and advisers of all student groups is maintained.

In co-operation with the student social committee, the major outlines of the social calendar are drawn up each spring for the succeeding year.

Assistance is given women students in making financial and other plans and in finding employment during the college year.

Dean of Men

The Office of the Dean of Men is concerned with the over-all adjustment of men students to University life. Men students should feel free to discuss with the Dean of Men any question or problem which may arise during their college experience. In areas such as personal finance, scholarships, work opportunities, absences, discipline, student government, and the conditions of dormitory and fraternity living the Dean of Men may act directly. In other matters referrals may be made to other members of the University staff.

Health Service

The University Health Service, located in Hood House, is devoted to the protection, improvement, and maintenance of student health. A well-equipped out-patient clinic for diagnosis and treatment of ambulatory patients and a modern hospital of 26 beds, with private and semi-private rooms, wards, and an isolation division for communicable diseases, are constantly available for students who require medical or surgical care. Registered nurses are on duty at all times. Individual health guidance is given through personal conferences with the University physicians.

Payment of tuition entitles students to all medical care rendered by the University Physician and his staff. Injury and illness which require hospital confinement other than in Hood House, services of specialists, operations, ambulance service, special nurse, or special prescriptions are at the expense of the student. Bed patients at Hood House are charged $2.00 per day. Office hours of the University Physician are from 8:00 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. daily except Saturday afternoons and Sundays.

Students' Medical Reimbursement Insurance

In addition to the health service available through Hood House, group accident and sickness insurance giving 12 months coverage is available to students at the University. This insurance coverage is designed to supplement the program of the University. Complete details may be had on application to John C. Paige and Company, 40 Broad Street, Boston, Mass.

Durham Notch Hall

This building serves as a temporary home for the Student Union, pending erection of the permanent memorial union building. It serves as a gathering place for students. Card games and ping-pong are available. The Student Union Board, on which there is student, faculty, and alumni representation, carries on an extensive cultural, social, and service program, paid for by an assessment of 75 cents a semester on each student. A soda fountain operates from early morning until late evenings. Magazines and newspapers are provided.

A convocation in the field house.

Religious Activities

Opportunities are provided in Durham for students to practice religion and to participate in religious life. The Hillel Club, the Newman Club, and the United Protestant Association are the agencies through which the religious interests and life are fostered among the students.

The Durham Community Church welcomes students to its many services of worship, to Sunday evening programs, and to share church activities through student affiliated membership.

The Episcopal Church provides a chaplain for students, and services are held each Sunday.

The parish of St. Thomas More serves the Roman Catholic students and faculty members. Sunday Masses are held at 8:00 and 11:00 A.M.

Placement Bureau

The Placement Bureau assists Seniors, Graduate Students, and Alumni to secure positions after graduation. It corresponds with and interviews school superintendents, personnel managers of industrial concerns, and others who employ baccalaureate and advanced degree students, calling to their attention Seniors, Graduate Students, and Alumni who are seeking positions.

Student Government

All undergraduate students are members of the "Student Government of the University of New Hampshire". The purposes of Student Government include promoting individual and collective responsibility among students, coordinating the activities of the student body and the faculty, making recommendations on behalf of the student body and the faculty, making recommendations on behalf of the student body, and acting as the official representative body for the students. The work of the Student Government is carried on by the Student Senate, the members of which are elected to represent all housing units and the commuting students.

Subsidiary organizations include, in addition to the class organizations, Women's Inter-Dormitory Council, Men's Inter-Dormitory Council, Pan-Hellenic, and Inter-Fraternity Council. These organizations deal with matters of particular interest to their membership.

Associated Student Organizations

This organization provides a central administration of business affairs for member organization. A board of three faculty members and five students approves budgets of member organizations, recommends the amount of the Student Activities assessment, and sets standards for and supervises the financial activities of member organizations.

The Alumni Association

Upon leaving the institution, all students of the University automatically become members of the University of New Hampshire Alumni Association. The present membership of the Association exceeds 15,000 men and women who represent New Hampshire College and University of New Hampshire classes from 1881 to 1951. Alumni reside in every state of the Union as well as in many foreign countries.

Governed by a Board of Directors of 12 elected members, the Alumni are organized by classes and clubs. Class reunions are held annually in June both in Durham and in adjacent communities. An annual Homecoming Day in the fall provides opportunity for Alumni to return to Durham while college is in session. A football game with a traditional rival and a reunion with former classmates and friends are the outstanding features of Homecoming Day. Other Alumni gatherings on Campus are also scheduled from time to time during the academic year. Every year 40 UNH Alumni clubs throughout the United States hold from one to six meetings each. The Clubs' annual meetings are held simultaneously as a Founder's Day occasion on "Ben Thompson's Birthday," April 22. A monthly magazine, The New Hampshire Alumnus, issued ten times a year, circulates news of students, Faculty, Alumni, and the University to Association subscribers. From Alumni Offices in Alumni House the Association's activities are directed by a permanent Alumni Secretary.

The officers of the University of New Hampshire Alumni Association are: Robert H. Sawyer '18, president; Bradford S. Boothby '32, first vice-president; Mary Louise Hancock '42, second vice-president; William L. Prince '30, secretary-treasurer and Alumni Secretary. Two Alumni Trustees, elected by the Association to the University Board of Trustees, are Dr. Anna L. Philbrook '28, and Albert S. Baker '21.

*The dates listed indicate (1) the date (in parentheses) of founding as local fraternity, and (2) the date of granting a charter to the national fraternities.

Methods of Admission

Regular Students

The University will admit without examination properly prepared New Hampshire students who are graduates of high schools or academies of New Hampshire that are approved by the State Board of Education, or those who are graduates of other accredited preparatory schools.

Applicants must have a scholastic record ranking in the upper two-fifths of the graduating class in order to be eligible for admission without examination.

The number of out-of-state students admitted each year is limited by law to a small proportion of the entering class. Selection of out-of-state candidates is made primarily on the basis of their high-school records, but such traits as character, leadership, and initiative will be taken into account. Because of the large number of New Hampshire students needing financial assistance in the form of employment, out-of-state applicants will be expected to give evidence of reasonable financial backing.

Applicants for admission are required to fill out an application form prepared by the University. Copies of this form may be obtained from secondary-school officials in New Hampshire or from the Director of Admissions.

An applicant for admission who is a resident of New Hampshire is required to remit a tuition deposit of $10 with his application. One from outside the State is required to remit $25. If the applicant is admitted to the University, his advance payment will be applied to the first semester's tuition; if he is not admitted, his advance payment will be returned. In the case of the applicant who is accepted for admission but does not enter or who withdraws after being accepted, the advance payment will not be returned. Remittance should be made either by check or by money order payable directly to the University of New Hampshire and should be sent with the application for admission.

Applications for admission in September should not be made until a student has received grades for the first semester of the senior year in high school. To insure consideration before the out-of-state quota is filled, out-of-state students should file applications not later than the middle of March. To insure eligibility for financial aid and a choice of dormitory rooms, in-state students should apply during the spring. It is understood that the preparatory work of students applying during the spring will be completed by the end of the school year. No application will be considered which is not complete one week before the start of Orientation Week.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class must show evidence, either by credentials or examination, that they are prepared in 15 units.

An entrance unit represents one course of four or five recitations a week for one year. It is assumed that two hours of shop or laboratory work are equivalent to one hour of classroom work.

Preparatory subjects are divided into six groups. The minimum numbers of units which should be offered in each group are: Group A, English, 3; Group B, Foreign Languages, 2 in a single foreign language, but none required if Group C is offered; Group C, Mathematics, 2 or 3*, none for Liberal Arts if Group B is offered; Group D, Natural Science, 1; Group E, Social Science (including History), 1; Group F, Vocational Subjects and miscellaneous, none required. Elective units may be offered from all groups, including a fourth year of English. At least 12 of 15 units should be from Groups A, B, C, D, and E.

Cases not covered by the above statements will be decided by the Committee on Admission.

Candidates for advanced standing may be admitted on the basis of the work satisfactorily completed at the institutions from which they come. Students leaving other institutions in poor scholastic standing will not be admitted.

Every candidate for admission claiming New Hampshire residence shall be required to complete a form which contains a statement to the effect that his parents are legally domiciled in the State of New Hampshire and that their names have appeared on the check list of the town or city of domicile for the entire past year. This statement must be notarized before an official authorized to administer oaths. Students admitted from foreign countries or states other than New Hampshire shall be deemed to be non-resident students throughout their entire attendance at the University unless and until the parents shall have gained bona fide residence in New Hampshire.

*This must be Mathematics preparing for further Mathematics; Commercial Arithmetic and Shop Mathematics are classed as Vocational Subjects. For students wishing to pursue courses in Engineering, Chemistry, or Physics, at least 3 units of Mathematics must be offered, including Elementary and Advanced Algebra and Plane and Solid Geometry.

Students admitted to the University must present to the Director of the University Health Service completed medical history and physical examination reports before registration can be completed. The forms for this report are furnished by the University.*

Special Students

A person who has not been formally admitted as a candidate for a degree at the University, upon presenting evidence of his ability to carry successfully the desired courses, may be admitted as a special student. He may be required to demonstrate by examination or otherwise that he is qualified to undertake college work. Recent failure to maintain good academic standing in any college or university would be evidence of his inability to carry the work successfully.

In choosing his studies, the special student must have the approval each semester of the chairman of each department in which he elects courses and of the dean of the college in which he is taking a majority of his credits.

If a special student meets the usual requirements for admission as a candidate for a degree, he may, at the beginning of any semester by making the proper application, change from a "Special" to a "Regular" student status. A special student, who does not meet the usual admission requirements of the University, may be admitted as a regular student on the basis of completion of at least 26 semester hours of work with a minimum grade point average of 1.6 in all work taken as a special student. Such a special student must make the change at the beginning of the semester following the completion of the required 26 semester hours. Work taken as a special student shall count toward a degree, if the student later becomes classified as a regular student.

Advanced Standing

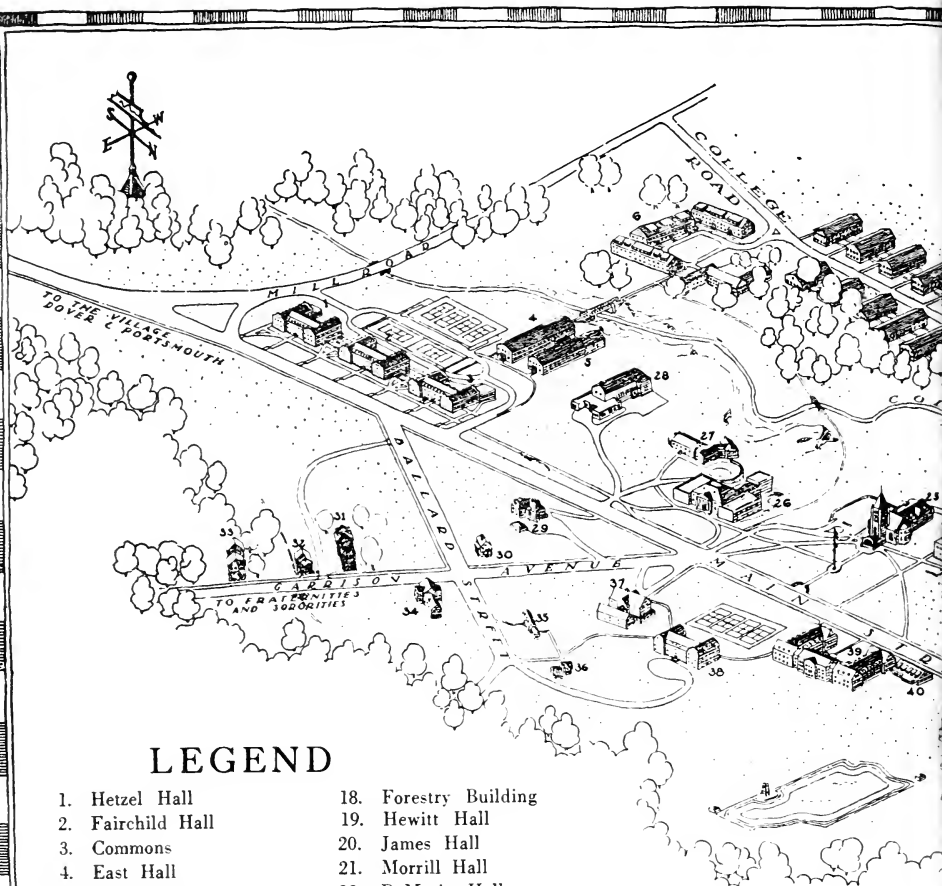

Candidates for advanced standing from approved institutions may be admitted. Their status will be tentatively determined by the quantity and quality of the work completed at the institution from which they come. These credits are not made part of the permanent record until the student has completed at least one semester at the University of New Hampshire with a certain average. No transfer credit will be given for courses in which the student received the lowest passing grade.

(1) Such students must file the same application for admission as required of Freshmen. In addition, they must furnish, at least 30 days prior to the time of transfer to the University of New Hampshire, an official transcript of work done at institutions previously attended.

(2) All candidates for the bachelor's degree, admitted to advanced standing, must spend their last year in residence, either in course or in Summer Session. This requires the completion of at least a quarter of the credits required for their degree.

(3) Regardless of the amount of advanced standing a student may secure, in no case shall he be granted a bachelor's degree until he has satisfied the full requirements of the curriculum he may elect.

*Exemption from these requirements may be secured only through submission of a written statement from parent or guardian which indicates that the request is made because of religious beliefs.

CHANGES IN RATES — The University reserves the right to adjust charges for such items as tuition and fees, board, and room rent from time to time. Such changes will be held to a minimum and will be announced as far in advance as feasible.

Registration for eight or more credits entitles the student to admission to all home Varsity athletic contests.

ADVANCE TUITION PAYMENT — An applicant for admission who is a resident of New Hampshire is required to remit $10 with his application; one from outside the State is required to remit $25. If the applicant is admitted to the University, his advance payment will be applied to the first semester's tuition; if he is not admitted, his advance payment will be returned. The advance payment of a student who is admitted, but does not enter, will not be returned.

MILITARY DEPOSIT — Uniforms for members of the Reserve Officers Training Corps are provided in co-operation with the Federal Government. A deposit of $15 is required of each student to whom military equipment is issued and is refundable, minus lost or damaged articles, at the time of returning military equipment.

ATHLETIC LOCKER DEPOSIT — Every student participating in the programs of Physical Education and Athletics for Men and Physical Education for Women is required to deposit $1.00 for a locker. This will be refunded upon return of the lock to the equipment room, minus 25 cents per semester, to meet partially the expense of towel service.

STUDENT ACTIVITY TAX — The Student Activity Tax, authorized by vote of the Student Senate with the approval of the Board of Trustees.

A women's physical education class.

Learning to make pottery.

must be paid by each undergraduate at the time of registration. The revenue from the tax provides each student with The New Hampshire, student newspaper; The Granite, University Annual; Durham Notch Hall membership, student activity center; Student Government, and class activities. The 1951-52 tax was $9.10.

Books — Students may purchase books, classroom supplies, and other supplies at the University Bookstore in Thompson Hall.

ROOMS — The University has five dormitories for women and nine for men. All rooms are heated, lighted, and furnished. Bed linen, blankets, and towels, however, are provided by the individual student. Each women's dormitory is equipped with a laundry. A service room is provided in each dormitory where grills and irons may be used with safety. The rates for each dormitory are shown in the section of this bulletin describing the residential halls. Applications for rooms in the dormitories should be addressed to the Secretary, Office of Room Assignments, Thompson Hall, University of New Hampshire, Durham.

Students living in University dormitories are required to sign room contracts covering the college year.

A five-dollar ($5.00) room deposit must accompany each application, this deposit to be forfeited if the room accepted is not occupied by the applicant. The deposit is held as a guarantee against breakage and will be returned at the close of the year or upon the student's withdrawal.

Room rent is payable in advance. For the Fall Semester room rent must be paid not later than August 15, and for other semesters during the registration periods. Reserved rooms will be held only until August 15 unless the Fall Semester's rent is paid before that date.

Rooms paid for and not occupied one day after registration may be declared vacant and the room rent returned, unless the individual holding the reservation makes a written request to the Dean of Men or Dean of Women to hold the room until a later date. The advance payment for the room will not be returned to those making this special request. No room will be reserved for more than ten days after the registration date. Early application is necessary in order to secure a choice of rooms. Rooms in private houses may be secured for about the same prices as for those in University dormitories.

Football is the highlight of the fall sports events.

A woman student, who does not live at home, is required to room in one of the women's dormitories or a sorority house, unless she is working for her room in a private family. A competent house director is in charge of each women's dormitory.

BOARD — A dining hall is operated and supervised by the University for the accommodation and benefit of the students. All Freshmen, except those whose rooms and meals are provided at home, are required to board at the University Dining Hall for the first two semesters of attendance at the University. The aim of the compulsory regulation is to insure a broad fellowship and to safeguard the health of the first-year students by offering skilled dietetic supervision in selection and preparation of their food. The Dining Hall is equipped with the best appliances for cooking and serving on a large scale, and is subject to constant sanitary inspection by the University Physician. Board in the Freshman Dining hall in 1951-52 was $135 per semester, payable at registration for each semester.

The Dining Hall is not operated for profit. Savings made possible by reduced costs of operation are passed along to the students in the form of reduced board charges.

A cafeteria is open to all students of the upper classes who may desire to take advantage of the moderate price and the high quality of food available at the University Dining Hall. In the upperclass cafeteria in 1951-52, 21-meal weekly tickets were $12.

PERSONAL CASH DEPOSITS — Students are urged to arrange personal checking accounts, or to place money on deposit in the Business Office until needed, in order to avoid possible loss resulting from keeping on hand considerable sums of money. Such banking arrangements will also facilitate payment at registration periods. The Business Office will accept and cash student checks.

Financial Aid For Students

The parents of many students at the University may find it a burden to bear the entire cost of four years of college education. This situation frequently is relieved in one or more of three ways: The student may help by working during the summer and in his spare time during the college year; the University or other organizations may grant a scholarship; the student may borrow from the University Loan Fund.

Student Work — During the college year, some students find employment as library assistants, assistants in instructional or research laboratories, proctors in dormitories, clerks in offices, workers in the dining halls, student janitors, and student workers on the University farms and about the Campus. Others find employment in fraternities, sororities, and in stores and households in the community.

A student in good health and of good academic ability should be able to earn in the neighborhood of $150 by working about 10 to 12 hours a week during the college year. Students who are in poor health or who encounter unusual difficulty in their studies may find it unwise to work. Students who are employed over 15 hours a week, unless they are unusually energetic, will discover that their studies are likely to suffer or that they must forego extra-curricular activities.

A student who resides in New Hampshire should count upon having at least $350 to $500, either from summer earnings or other savings or promised by his family. Inability to raise this amount of money should not cause a capable student to give up his plans for a college education; but he should get in touch with an official of the University for help in working out the plans to insure his being able to complete his first year. Many unusually ambitious students, with no financial help from their families, are able to work their way through college. The problem of self-support may be discussed in a personal interview with the Director of Admissions, or inquiries on the subject may be addressed to the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women.

Finding Work — Applications for part-time employment during the college year may be made directly to the employing official, such as the Manager of the University Dining Hall, the Librarian, or the Superintendent of Properties. The Dean of Women, for women students, and the Dean of Men, for men students, will be glad to assist students in finding employment either on Campus or in the homes and business establishments of Durham. An ambitious, hardworking student usually will find steady part-time employment, either on or off Campus. However it is seldom possible for a Freshman to make complete arrangements before coming to Durham for Orientation Week. Usually the student's schedule of class hours must be arranged before a definite job is secured.

Women students who wish to earn their room and board in private families must apply to the Dean of Women, who will supervise the making of arrangements. Freshman women are advised against attempting to earn their room and board in this way unless they are in good physical condition and have had excellent preparation for their University work.

Scholarships

A substantial number of students receive help from the nearly 600 scholarships which are awarded each year through the University Scholarship Committee. Two hundred-and-seventy of these scholarships are reserved for Freshmen and a number of others are open for Freshman applications.

The total annual value of the scholarships is slightly over $60,000. Most of them pay $125 a year, though a few pay less and a few pay substantially more.* Most of the scholarships are awarded to students with better than average scholastic records and a definite need for financial assistance. A few are awarded solely on the basis of outstanding accomplishment, while a number, the most important of which are the Tuition Grants, are awarded primarily on the basis of financial need. In addition to the scholarships offered by the University, in many communities there are available scholarships for high-school graduates who are planning college study. These usually are awarded by a local service or women's club or by a trust fund. Local banks frequently have information about such trust funds. Freshmen who live in New Hampshire may obtain scholarship information and application blanks from their high-school headmasters, the officers of the local Grange, or the University Director of Admissions. The financial adviser for women students is the Dean of Women and for men students the Dean of Men. Students with special financial problems should contact one of them. Upperclass students should get their scholarship applications from their office.

Applications by upperclassmen for scholarships should be filed by April 15 of the year preceding that for which the scholarship is sought. Applications by Freshmen should be made by July 15.

Holders of scholarships are expected to meet satisfactorily all college requirements.

In order to assist needy students to continue their education, the University has established a Student Loan Fund. After proper investigation and approval by parents, loans may be granted to responsible students for tuition or other college expenses, except that Freshmen holding Tuition Grants may borrow in addition not in excess of $25. These loans will bear interest at 2 per cent until graduation or withdrawal from the University, and 5 per cent after graduation or withdrawal and are payable as follows $5 a month beginning one year after graduation or withdrawal; $10 a month beginning two years after graduation or withdrawal; $15 a month beginning three years after graduation or withdrawal; and a like sum each month thereafter until principal and interest are paid.

James B. Erskine Loan Fund — In 1930, a bequest of Dr. James B. Erskine, of Tilton, provided a fund of approximately $10,000 for loans to students; loans to bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent until paid. This fund will be reserved for members of the Senior Class.

S. Morris Locke Loan Fund — Through a bequest of the late Mary D. Carbee of Haverhill, N. H., a fund has been created for loan purposes in memory of Mr. and Mrs. S. Morris Locke. The fund now totals approximately $22,000.

R. C. Bradley Loan Fund — The New Hampshire Poultry Growers Association has established a loan fund for assistance to undergraduates who have been in attendance at the University at least two years, with preference given to Seniors. Loans are open only to students majoring in Poultry Husbandry in the College of Agriculture and are based on character, scholarship, and need of financial assistance. Applications made to the Committee on Student Aid are approved by that committee with the advice of a committee selected by the directors of the Poultry Growers Association.

The fund totals $1,883.

Frederick Smyth Book Fund — The income of a bequest of $2,000 in 1901 by Frederick Smyth, of Manchester, is applied to the purchase of books to be given annually to the most meritorious students.

The Courses of Study

Choosing a Curriculum

Every student at the University specializes in some field of study. Except for the desirability of choosing among the three broad fields of Agriculture, Liberal Arts, and Technology, the Freshman entering the University of New Hampshire may delay selection of a specialty until he has been in attendance for a semester or for a year. In the College of Liberal Arts the selection of a program may be postponed until the end of the second year. However, the sooner a student decides what curriculum he proposes to follow, the better. Even when a student feels sure of his choice, he should bear in mind the possibility that he may change his mind and that it is well to avoid overspecialization in high school or in the first part of a college career. No one can foresee the trend of the future. Therefore, the wise person is one who is prepared to make his way in more than one field.

The high-school senior should talk over his future plans with his teachers and headmaster. Officials of the University of New Hampshire also will be glad to consult with him, preferably in an interview, but if that is not feasible, by mail.

Each year, the University gives the entering Freshman a series of tests. The object of these tests is to furnish additional information to enable the Faculty of the University to help the student choose the curriculum for which he is best fitted. The Faculty Advisers and the Counseling Service staff use these tests to help students solve their educational and personal problems.

The work of the University is divided so that when a student decides upon a general field of studies or a vocation, he is guided into a program of courses fitted to his purpose. Such a program is called a curriculum. The student who chooses the General Liberal Arts curriculum takes several courses in the subject he chooses as his major, but also is allowed to elect many other courses to broaden his education. The student who chooses certain of the Engineering curriculums, on the other hand, is confined principally to courses prescribed for him, all of which are technical or scientific except for a course or two in English. The other curriculums fall between these two extremes.

Required Courses

Certain courses are required of all students in the University. English 1-2 is required of all students in the Freshman year. During their first six semesters of attendance women students are required to take Physical Education. All men students, except those who have been in the military service, are required to take Physical Education and Military Science during their first four semesters.

The Undergraduate Colleges

For convenience in administration, the undergraduate work of the University of New Hampshire is divided into three Colleges: Agriculture, Liberal Arts, and Technology.

Agriculture

The College of Agriculture offers curriculums planned to prepare the student for farming and for industries and scientific work associated with agriculture. The Home Economics and Forestry curriculums are also part of the work under the immediate supervision of the College of Agriculture. It is not essential in every instance that the student have an interest in applied agriculture. All curriculums offer a general education and training in the basic sciences. The student should not only determine the curriculum for which he possesses the greatest interest and aptitude but should also consider the opportunities, whether farming, extension, research, teaching, industry and commerce, or civil service. The curriculums are:

Agricultural and Biological Chemistry	General Home Economics
Agricultural Economics	Horticulture
Agricultural Engineering*	Hospital Dietetics
Agronomy	Institutional Administration
Animal Husbandry	Mechanized Agriculture
Botany	Poultry Husbandry
Dairy Husbandry	Pre-Veterinary
Entomology	Teacher Preparation in Agriculture
Forestry	Teacher Preparation in Home Economics
General Agriculture

*A curriculum with requirements paralleling those of the College of Technology.

Students learn to dress chickens in a poultry laboratory.

For those lacking the time or the preparation for a four-year curriculum in Agriculture, the University maintains a two-year course called Applied Farming. Those interested in this course should write for the special bulletin describing it.

The Freshman in Agriculture enrolls for one-year courses in English, General Chemistry, and Mathematics, including Algebra and Trigonometry; and semester courses in Botany and Zoology. Each Freshman also has one elective.

In order to complete the requirements for a degree from the College of Agriculture a student must obtain, in addition to the required Freshman work, credit in each of several areas. These additional minimum requirements covering the four years of study follow: Biological Sciences, 3 semester credits; Chemistry, 5 semester credits; Economics, 6 semester credits; English, 5 semester credits; Physics, 4 semester credits; and Social Sciences, 6 semester credits. Much of the work a student takes beyond that needed to meet the foregoing general requirements is in the field of his specialization.

Typical courses in the various fields include:

Agricultural and Biological Chemistry — biological chemistry, chemistry of plant growth, chemistry of human and animal nutrition, physiological chemistry, agricultural analysis.

Agricultural Economics — farm management, co-operative business, marketing, agricultural policy.

Agronomy — soils, fertilizers, cereal crops, potatoes, forage crops, seed testing, soil conservation, soil physics, soil chemistry.

Agricultural Engineering — agricultural power and machinery, agricultural shop, agricultural structures, calculus, surveying, soil and water engineering, machine drawing, kinematics, mechanics, thermodynamics and electrical machinery.

Animal Husbandry — types of livestock, livestock judging, feeds and feeding, anatomy, diseases, meat products, animal breeding.

Botany — general botany, plant anatomy and cytology, systematic botany, plant pathology, plant physiology, and plant ecology.

Dairy Husbandry — fundamentals of dairying, dairy cattle, market milk, ice cream, butter and cheese, dairy bacteriology, judging, milk production.

Entomology — economic entomology, insects of orchard and garden, forest insects, medical entomology.

Forestry — tree and wood identification, silviculture, forest protection, forest mensuration, use of air photos, forest utilization, forest recreation, forest management, wildlife management.

Mechanized Agriculture — farm shop, farm structures, farm wiring and electrical equipment, farm power and machinery.

Home Economics — clothing and textiles, food and nutrition, child development, home management, institutional management, hospital dietetics, home economics education, and extension.

Horticulture — vegetable gardening, judging, ornamental woody plants, elementary landscape gardening, floral arrangement, greenhouse management, beekeeping, orchard fruits, small fruit culture, commercial vegetable production, plant breeding and propagation.

Poultry Husbandry — farm poultry, poultry breeding, judging, incubation and brooding, marketing, feeding, housing, poultry management, poultry diseases, turkey production.

Liberal Arts

The offerings of the College of Liberal Arts fall into two groups. The student who elects the General Liberal Arts curriculum is given the opportunity to secure a broad general education in such divisions of learning as social science, the humanities, biological science, and physical science. Each student pursuing the General Liberal Arts curriculum must pass a reading test in a foreign language before graduation. A major may be taken in any of the following subjects: The Arts, Bacteriology, Biology, Botany, Chemistry, Economics, Education, English, Entomology, Geology, Government, History, History and Literature, Home Economics, Foreign Languages, Mathematics, Music, Physics, Psychology, Sociology, or Zoology.

In his first year, a student following the General Liberal Arts curriculum will take in addition to Physical Education and (if a male) Military Science, Introduction to Contemporary Civilization, Freshman English, and a course in either biology or a physical science chosen from chemistry, geology, mathematics, or physics. His fourth course usually will be exploratory, an introductory course in the field in which he may decide to major.

In his Sophomore Year, the General Liberal Arts student will continue a broadening education by fulfilling what are known as Sophomore Group Requirements. These require each student to take courses in each of the following groups:

Group I	Group II	Group III
Introduction to The Arts	Biology	Economics
English Literature	Chemistry	Government
American Literature	Geology	Psychology
Humanities	Mathematics	Sociology
Foreign Languages	Physics
Appreciation of Music
Philosophy

A student may choose a major at the end of his Freshman Year, or he may postpone his decision as late as the end of the Sophomore Year. A minimum of 24 semester credits is required in the major, though some majors may require one or more additional courses which do not count for major credit. The General Liberal Arts curriculum is intended to provide a concentration in a limited area but in no sense is it designed to prepare students completely for a specific vocation.

The second group of offerings in the College of Liberal Arts includes several curriculums, giving preparation for certain vocations.

An art laboratory.

These curriculums are:

Business with Accounting Option
 Hotel Administration
 Medical Technology
 Nursing
 Occupational Therapy
 Pre-Medical Secretarial
 Social Service

Teacher Preparation: Art, Commercial Subjects, Home Economics, Music, and Physical Education for Men and Physical Education for Women including a Recreation Option.

During the Freshman Year, students following one of the prescribed curriculums take courses or have programs of courses very similar to those of students following the General Liberal Arts curriculum. The first year, those who are going into scientific fields usually take two sciences instead of one. In general, however, the work of the first year is broadening, rather than specialized. Students following a prescribed curriculum are not held for the language reading requirement but an attempt is made to broaden the curriculums by including one year's work in the Humanities and six semester credits in Social Science. Required courses in the various prescribed curriculums in the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Years are as follows, the numbers indicating the semester hours. (The balance of a student's program is made up of electives.)

TEACHER PREPARATION

Students may prepare for teaching in the secondary schools of New Hampshire and neighboring states either in a General Liberal Arts major or in one of the specialized teacher preparation curriculums.

Usually only those who have objectives which can be met in no other way will be majors in the Department of Education. Most of those planning to teach in the secondary schools will major in a particular subject-matter area such as Biology, English, Government, History, Languages, Mathematics. Professional courses in Education required for state certification are taken as electives while completing the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts Degree.

Those students who are interested in the specialized areas of Art, Music or Physical Education may complete the requirements for the Practical laboratory work in a hotel administration course.

Bachelor of Science Degree in one of the following prescribed curriculums.

Students who desire to prepare themselves as playground directors, etc., may elect to follow the Recreation Option. In the Junior and Senior years this option substitutes for certain courses in the Physical Education Teacher Preparation program the requirements of:

	credits		credits
Stagecraft	1½	Field Biology and Nature
Crafts	2	Study	3
Dramatic Workshop	3	Music Appreciation	2
Organized Camping	3	Community Organization	3
		Humanities	12
		Social Science	6

Interested students may pursue courses which give training in the areas of Applied Biology, Biological Laboratory Technique, and Pre-Dentistry. For a number of professions such as law, teaching, library work, and so on, the student who can afford it will be better prepared if he takes a four-year Liberal Arts course and then gets his professional training on the graduate level. A student who is interested in a combination of courses not listed in a regular curriculum will find it easier to arrange what he wants in the College of Liberal Arts than in either of the other Colleges.

Technology

The College of Technology offers curriculums in Building Construction, Chemistry, Physics, and various branches of Engineering. Mathematics and the physical sciences are basic for all Engineering curriculums. Students who have not done well in these subjects in high school will find it difficult to carry the work in this field. The College of Technology curriculums are:

Building Construction	Electrical Engineering
Chemical Engineering	Mechanical Engineering
Chemistry	Physics
Civil Engineering

The Freshman Year for all curriculums in the College of Technology includes Algebra, Trigonometry, Analytic Geometry, Introduction to Calculus, General Chemistry, Engineering Drawing, and English. The civil engineering and building construction majors have Surveying in the second semester. Elements of German Grammar is required for chemistry majors.

Laboratory work is an important part of study in the sciences.

Special subject requirements of the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Years in Technology follow:

University Fees and Expenses

The following paragraphs summarize some of the pertinent information about fees and expenses. Complete information may be found in the General Information, 1952-1953 issue of the University Bulletin.

TUITION AND FEES. Tuition and fees for each semester are payable in advance.

The charge for tuition and fees is $250 per year for residents of New Hampshire and $500 for non-residents. Tuition and fees are itemized as follows: Tuition — $125 for residents of New Hampshire and $375 for non-residents. Fees — registration, $10; laboratory and library, $60, health and infirmary, $15; recreational facilities, $25; general University fee (incidentals), $15. Refundable deposits may be required to cover loss or breakage in certain departments. A charge will be made for individual lessons in music, as noted in the description of Applied Music courses. A charge will be made for riding lessons, as noted in the section on Physical Education for Women.

Any student who registers for 8 credits or more per semester shall pay the full tuition. Any student registering for fewer than 8 credits shall pay $9.00 per credit hour if a resident of the State, and $18.00 per credit hour if a non-resident.

CHANGES IN RATES. The University reserves the right to adjust charges for such items as tuition, board, and room rent from time to time. Such changes will be held to a minimum and will be announced as far in advance as feasible.

DEPOSITS. A deposit of $15 is required of each student to whom military equipment is issued. Every student participating in the program of Physical Education and Athletics for Men and Physical Education for Women is required to deposit $1 for a locker and towel service, of which 25 cents a semester is for towel service.

STUDENT ACTIVITY TAX. This tax, which was $9.10 in 1951-52, must be paid by each undergraduate at the time of registration.

ROOMS. Students living in University dormitories are required to sign room contracts covering the college year.

A five-dollar $(5.00) room deposit must accompany each application for a room. This deposit will be forfeited if the room accepted is not occupied by the applicant. The deposit is held as a guarantee against breakage.

Room rent is payable in advance. For the Fall Semester room rent must be paid not later than August 15, and for other semesters during the registration periods. Reserved rooms will be held only until August 15 unless the Fall Semester's rent is paid before that date.

Rooms which are paid for and are not occupied one day after registration may be declared vacant and the room rent returned, unless the individual who holds the reservation makes a written request to the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women to hold the room until a later date. The advance payment for the room will not be returned to those who make this special request. No room will be reserved for more than 10 days after the registration date. Early application is necessary in order to secure a choice of rooms. Rooms in private homes may be secured for about the same prices as for those in University dormitories.

Undergraduate women students under 23 years of age are required to room in one of the women's dormitories or a sorority house, unless they are working for a room in a private home or are living with their family.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The objective of the Four-Year Curriculum of this College is to give a broad general education and thorough training in the basic sciences as well as to develop specific technical knowledge relating to the various phases of agriculture, forestry, and home economics. To this end several subjects in the Colleges of Liberal Arts and Technology have been added to those provided by the College of Agriculture. The lecture and recitation work of the classroom is supplemented by practical exercises in the laboratories and about the farm. Seminars and discussion courses are provided for advanced students.

Some of the graduates of the Four-Year Curriculum return to the farm for the purpose of putting into practice the knowledge and training gained in their college courses, and have become successful and prosperous citizens of their communities; others accept salaried positions as superintendents or foremen on large dairy, fruit, stock, or poultry farms; still others take positions as teachers of science and agriculture in our secondary schools, or as assistants in agricultural colleges, experiment stations, or extension services; and, finally, an increasingly large number continue in specialized work, here or elsewhere, as candidates for graduate degrees.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE DEGREE

The College of Agriculture offers the following degrees, depending on the student's field of specialization: Bachelor of Science in Agriculture, Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Engineering, Bachelor of Science in Forestry, and Bachelor of Science in Home Economics.

When a student enters the College of Agriculture as a candidate for the Bachelor of Science degree he is placed under the guidance of the Executive Advisory Committee. Previous to registration for the second semester the student will be given an opportunity to select his major field of study.

When his major field has been selected, not later than at registration for the Sophomore year, he will be assigned to an adviser who will be responsible for approving his program of study until such time as he selects a new major.

The major curriculums from which the Agricultural student may make his final choice follow. The College of Agriculture will be pleased to arrange courses of study for pre-theological, two-year pre-veterinary, and other students who desire a specialized program of study.

CURRICULUMS

General Agriculture

This Curriculum is offered for the student who wishes to secure a broad, general training in many important branches of agriculture without specializing unduly in any particular department. A wider choice of subject matter is advised here than in the more specialized curriculums.

Students who expect to engage in farming will find this so-called General Curriculum, with its wide range of fundamental courses, a most profitable one. This Curriculum also prepares for Agricultural Extension work like that of a county agent, a boys' and girls' club leader, or a marketing or farm management investigator. For those expecting to specialize later in graduate work, the broad foundation of fundamental subject matter made possible by this Curriculum should provide a desirable background.

Agricultural and Biological Chemistry

Students majoring in this Curriculum receive training in the various branches of General Chemistry and in their application to the growth and development of plants and animals. The methods used in the chemical analysis of plants and agricultural products and in the study of animal nutrition and metabolism are given special attention. The Curriculum is designed to provide a thorough foundation for those expecting to prepare themselves for teaching and research in agricultural colleges and experiment stations, or for technical positions in industry related to agriculture. A Freshman who wishes to major in this Department should take Chemistry 3-4 and also Mathematics 11, 13, 14 and 16 if his high-school preparation is adequate.

As this is a professional and specialized field, entrance to it at the beginning of the Sophomore year, and continuance in it, are conditioned by a satisfactory record. An early conference with the Chairman of the Department is imperative.

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Economics

The Curriculum in Agricultural Economics is designed to meet the needs of two groups of students: (1) those who are interested in becoming farmers, farm managers, farm credit representatives, county agricultural agents, managers of co-operatives or representatives of firms marketing farm products or selling supplies and services to farmers; and (2) those who wish to prepare for more specialized positions in agricultural colleges, experiment stations, government agencies or research departments of industrial firms servicing agriculture.

The student is trained in farm management and marketing problems and in appraising farm programs.

All students majoring in this field are expected to gain a good background in practical agriculture from courses in dairy, poultry, and other fields. Such courses are selected by the student on the basis of his interest and personal objectives. Those who are planning to prepare for professional work in Agricultural Economics will be advised in the selection of special courses.

Agricultural Engineering

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Engineering will refer to the Agricultural Engineering Curriculum on page 46. Candidates for the Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Mechanized Agriculture will refer to Mechanized Agriculture on page 37.

Agronomy

Courses offered in this field provide a chance for the student to specialize in Soil Science or Field Crops.

Students who major in Soil Science may find employment in many specialized fields, such as Soil Physics, Soil Chemistry, Soil Micro-biology, Soil Fertility, Soil Classification and Mapping, and Soil Technology. Those who wish to specialize in Field Crops will be trained to pursue work in Crop Production, Crop Improvement, Plant Breeding, and related fields. Men with a fundamental training in Soils and Crops are fitted to take Federal Civil Service examinations to enter the Soil Conservation Service or divisions in the Bureau of Plant Industry, Soils, and Agricultural Engineering, United States Department of Agriculture.

Positions in research and teaching and in Agricultural Extension work are also available to men trained in soils and crops, particularly if those who desire them pursue further study in agronomic fields. Seed, feed, and fertilizer companies are eager to employ men with a broad training in Agronomy.

A well-equipped soils laboratory is maintained and near-by soil types and profiles are available for study. A great variety of plant material is maintained for use in the crops and seed laboratories and in field nurseries.

Animal Husbandry

This Curriculum is offered to students who wish specialized training in the intelligent and practical selection, breeding, feeding, and management of horses, sheep, swine, and beef and dual-purpose cattle.

It provides basic knowledge and training for managing livestock farms, and prepares students for production and sales work with feed concerns and packing plants. Many graduates enter the field of Agricultural Extension work as specialists and as county agricultural agents. The subject matter is basic in preparation for graduate work in Animal Husbandry.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

A course in meat and meat products is included. Some cultural subjects are required. Students are permitted to elect subjects in line with their capabilities and inclinations.

The Department maintains purebred herds of Milking Shorthorn and Hereford cattle; Yorkshire swine; flocks of Dorset and Shropshire sheep; Belgian and Morgan stallions, and Percheron and Morgan mares.

Botany

The field of Botany as a profession, in general, is open only to those students who are willing to do graduate work leading to the M.S. or Ph.D. degrees. The principal fields of concentration in Botany are: (1) Pathology — the study of plant diseases, their causes and control; (2) Physiology — the study of plant-functioning with such practical applications as plant nutrition and other requirements for plant growth; (3) Taxonomy — plant classification and plant identification; (4) Ecology — which concerns the relationship of the plant to its environment; and (5) Morphology and Cytology — the study of the anatomy, development and cellular organization of plants. Histological and cytological techniques including chromosome studies belong here. The undergraduate courses to be taken in all these fields are nearly the same until the Junior and Senior years. Some specialization should then be made. The student who graduates in Botany may take graduate work in Botany or in the related fields of Horticulture, Forestry, and Agronomy which require an extensive background in Botany. Although opportunities for those with advanced training in Botany are not as broad as in certain other fields, assistantships, research positions, and full-time teaching jobs are more available at present than in previous years. Opportunities for able botanists also occasionally occur in government work.

Dairy Husbandry

Students majoring in Dairy Husbandry are offered specialized courses in (1) Dairy Production and (2) Dairy Manufacturing. Training in Dairy Production prepares students for the operation of modern dairy farms; for positions in the Agricultural Extension Service and Breed Association work; and for field, sales, and technical positions in the Dairy Farm Equipment and Feed Industry and for commercial dairy concerns.

Training in Dairy Manufacturing is particularly well suited to prepare students for executive and administrative positions in creamery and other dairy establishments. It also prepares for plant and laboratory positions in milk and milk-processing plants; and for inspectors of dairy products and dairy establishments in federal, state, and municipal service.

Both of these fields offer a broad fundamental training for those intending to pursue graduate study in preparation for more specialized work in dairy and related industries.

The University dairy herd, together with the daily operations in the market milk pasteurizing and ice cream units at the Dairy Building, contribute to the practical training of students in any one of several lines of the dairy industry.

The Dairy Husbandry Laboratories, located in the Dairy Building and in the Dairy Barn, are well equipped for instructional purposes. The equipment includes power churn, power separator, pasteurizers, coolers, ice cream freezers, bottler, refrigeration units, homogenizer, and a soaker-type bottle washer. The milk testing and bacteriological laboratories are equipped for chemical and bacteriological analyses of dairy products.

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

Entomology

The Department of Entomology offers various courses for students who wish to specialize in the study of insects, insect life, and in the control of insects. Although the field of employment is limited, there are definite opportunities available to those who are qualified. The majority of these opportunities are in the public service, although commercial and industrial firms also employ college graduates who have specialized in this field.

Students who desire a broad fundamental training in Entomology and related fields will follow the program outlined as General Entomology. Those who wish to specialize in chemical control of insects, and who plan to take graduate work leading to a professional degree in that field, will follow a program to be outlined for Insect Toxicology. These students will be expected to take considerable Mathematics and Chemistry.

Students planning a career in Entomology are urged to consult with their adviser in regard to the selection of electives best suited to their needs.

Horticulture

Conditions of climate, soil, and market combine to make New Hampshire a state with great horticultural possibilities. Accordingly, the Department of Horticulture, with its excellent facilities and staff, offers instruction in three major fields: Pomology (fruit growing), Olericulture (vegetable growing), and Ornamental Horticulture with particular emphasis on Floriculture, Propagation, and Greenhouse Management.

Students who graduate with a major in Horticulture will have received the liberal training expected of a university graduate, a thorough preparation in the fundamental sciences underlying plant production, adequate training in General Horticulture, and, finally, specialization in the field chosen. The courses are designed to acquaint the student with the problems of the improvement, production, and marketing of fruits, vegetables, plants, or flowers. The training is such that superior students can pass the Federal Civil Service Examinations required for entrance into positions with the United States Department of Agriculture or find positions in research, teaching, or state agricultural extension services. It is usually expected that students will take graduate work if they intend to enter the professional field. University of New Hampshire graduates with a good scholastic record have had little difficulty in securing fellowships or scholarships in other colleges and universities.

Major students in the Department must elect a minimum of 11 semester credits in Advanced Horticulture and related courses, in addition to Hort. 2, 13, 91, 92, and 94, required of all majors. A special effort is made to see that outside work during the college year and work done during the vacation periods will provide sufficient practical experience before a student graduates, so that he has more than a theoretical knowledge of his profession. The extensive University orchards, gardens, and greenhouses are used as laboratories.

Mechanized Agriculture

A program offered by the Department of Agricultural Engineering for students who are interested in the production of crops and livestock, county agricultural agent work, soil conservation work, and in sales work dealing directly with farm people. Courses offered by the Department for students in this Curriculum approach soil and water control, farm power and machinery, farm buildings, and electrical equipment from the point of view of the user and consumer rather than that of the designer.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Poultry Husbandry

The Curriculum in Poultry Husbandry has been designed to offer students fundamental and special training in the practical and professional fields of Poultry.

The program of study prepares students for various lines of work such as: production, sales, and service with feed and equipment manufacturing concerns; marketing organizations, handling poultry and eggs; commercial hatcheries; poultry-farm managers, as well as for the operation of their own farms. By supplementing his undergraduate work with one or more years of graduate study, the superior student will find opportunities in the professional fields of teaching, agricultural extension, and research.

Major students are expected to take all courses offered in the Department. In addition, selected courses in other departments of the College are required in support of, and as a supplement to, the instruction given in the Department. However, the student elects these courses under guidance, and considerable latitude is offered. Special attention is given to the interests and ability of each student.

The Department works closely with the poultry industry in the State which ranks high among those in the country. In this connection, frequent and full discussion is given in the classroom to broad problems of the industry.

A brief but comprehensive period of practical work is offered for those who lack sufficient experience in the actual care and production of chicks and laying birds. All the facilities of the University Plant are available for such students. This plant is stocked with both chickens and turkeys, and has modern equipment for carrying on its work.

Pre-Veterinary

Students who contemplate veterinary medicine as a career should elect the Pre-Veterinary Curriculum. Successful completion of this Curriculum will meet the scholastic requirements for admission to an approved veterinary college. However, all veterinary colleges give first preference for admission to applicants from their respective states. The current number of applications for admission is tremendous. The few out-of-state students who will be admitted will necessarily have shown outstanding scholastic ability.

Although two years of Pre-Veterinary training will meet the requirements of most veterinary colleges, it is desirable for a person to spend four years in Pre-Veterinary work and complete the requirements for the Bachelor's Degree.

Teacher Preparation

Under the provisions of the Smith-Hughes Act, the University of New Hampshire has been designated as the institution in this State for the preparation of Teachers of Agriculture. Vocational Agriculture offers a fertile field for young men who desire to follow the profession of teaching. The work is varied and interesting with opportunities for wide community contacts through the all-day, young farmer and adult farmer programs.

Agricultural teachers are encouraged to enter upon a program of graduate study as a means of professional growth. Successful completion of such study should result in greater opportunities for advancement in the field of Agricultural Education.

Due to the nature of the duties performed by the teacher of Agriculture, it is essential for a student to acquire a good foundation in all the predominating agricultural enterprises of the State. His course of study, therefore, will follow a broad general program rather than a specialization in any one particular field. Furthermore, he must meet the State requirements for certification which include 21 semester hours of professional education, and 8 credits of Agricultural Engineering.

In the Freshman Year, Pre-Veterinary majors will take Chemistry 3-4 as a prerequisite for more advanced chemistry in subsequent years. The program of study is so arranged that the student will meet the course requirements of most veterinary colleges at the end of the Sophomore Year. The student should make known to his advisor the name of the veterinary college to which he wishes to be admitted.

Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Engineering

Each candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Engineering must complete a minimum of 144 semester credits including courses specifically required by the curriculums as outlined, and must achieve a grade point average of at least 1.8. Further requirements are explained in the footnotes associated with the outline.

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

Students who elect this course of study are expected to prepare for engineering service in rural communities; for teaching, research, and extension work in colleges, experiment stations, and government agencies in fields which require engineering application; for positions in the manufacture and sale of farm machinery and farm power equipment; for advisory and managerial posts in connection with agricultural development; for positions with farm buildings and materials concerns; and for work relating to the increased use of electricity in agriculture.

Ec. 14 and Agron. 11 sufficient to total 19 semester credits; (4) one or more approved courses from the College of Technology having bearing on the individual's needs and interests.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Note — For the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Engineering, 144 semester credits are an absolute minimum. Students will be encouraged to take as many as 150 semester credits to obtain a well rounded agricultural background.

Summer Employment

Ten weeks of agricultural employment are required of all candidates for the degree during some Summer Session (preferably between the Sophomore and Junior Years). This employment must be approved by the agricultural engineering staff and the Dean of the College. For those students having exceptional experience of this type, the requirement will be waived upon satisfactory completion of a special comprehensive examination, administered as directed by the Dean of the College of Agriculture.

Summer Session

On approval (or recommendation) of the Agricultural Engineering staff, some students may take a summer session or an additional semester in which to complete their requirements for the degree in order to lighten their load during the other eight semesters.

Bachelor of Science in Forestry

All Forestry majors must take the same basic program to qualify for the degree of B.S. in Forestry. Further requirements are designed to meet the needs of three classes of students: (1) those who desire a foundation for professional or graduate work in Forestry; (2) those who wish to fit themselves for employment in Wildlife Management; and (3) those who intend to enter the field of Forest Recreation. The program for each group is approximately the same during the first two years, although it is necessary to make certain decisions rather early in the course. Attendance at an eight weeks' session of Summer Camp is required during the summer following the Sophomore year, except for the Wildlife Management group, who will attend camp at the end of the Junior year.

Forestry

This includes those students who wish to secure a general training in Forestry, but who do not care to spend more than four years in college. There is some latitude in the courses which the student may elect, but his efforts are directed toward securing a broad knowledge of the profession. Those who intend to enter the United States Forest Service, or to become teachers or research workers should plan to take advanced studies at some other institution, and should elect the courses necessary for admission to graduate school.

Wildlife Management

The Wildlife Management curriculum emphasizes this field while giving the student an adequate training in General Forestry. This combination is considered essential, as a large part of the country's wildlife program of the future will be handled by men who are employed primarily as foresters.

Forest Recreation

This curriculum is designed to prepare the student for positions connected with the management of public parks, camping grounds, etc., carried on as a part of a regular forestry program. Besides attending camp, the student is expected to spend one summer in employment on a recreational area.

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

A student majoring in one of the Forestry curriculums is held for the same general, specific, and additional minimum requirements given on pages 33 and 34 for the Bachelor of Science in Agriculture degree.

Bachelor of Science in Home Economics

In Home Economics, a student who wishes to take a professional curriculum has three choices: (1) Hospital Dietetics, (2) Institutional Administration, or (3) Teacher Preparation for Secondary Schools or Home Demonstration or 4-H Club work in the Agricultural Extension Service. Others interested in following the profession of homemaking or in a broad general education, particularly applicable to women, are advised to major in Home Economics either in Agriculture or Liberal Arts. This Curriculum may also serve as pre-professional preparation for further training in child guidance, clothing and textiles, salesmanship, interior decoration and other lines. Miss Frances Platts, Room 211, Pettie Hall should be consulted for further details for the Liberal Arts program; Miss Anna Light, Pettie 209, for the general

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

The Applied Farming Course

A TWO-YEAR NON-DEGREE CURRICULUM

For one reason or another many young people find it unfeasible to attend the College of Agriculture for four years as a candidate for an academic degree. The Applied Farming Course at the University of New Hampshire offers to such young men and women who are interested in farming and allied occupations the opportunity to secure scientific and practical agricultural training in two years of study. This vocational course is designed particularly for those who wish to become farmers or to seek employment in related activities. Some of the more common types of opportunities available for the two-year student follow:

- Farming — owner, renter, operator
- Farm manager or estate superintendent
- Herdsman or assistant
- Milk plant operator or assistant
- Poultry plant foreman
- Feed and fertilizer store operator or assistant
- Greenhouse or landscape work
- Skilled worker for nurserymen and seedsmen
- Farm machinery worker — sales, service, or operation
- Worker in retail agricultural marketing
- Milk testers
- Caretaker of estate
- Superintendent, foreman, or worker in parks
- Worker in a commercial dairy manufacturing and distributing plant

Admission Requirements

The Applied Farming Course is open to both young men and young women. Graduates of high schools will be admitted irrespective of age. Applicants who are not high-school graduates must be 18 years of age and must have had at least two years of high-school work or its equivalent. Judgment and understanding will be carefully considered in determining those who will be admitted. A farm background, though not required, will prove exceptionally valuable.

Requirements for Graduation

The completion of the Applied Farming Course requires two calendar years. The instruction is divided as follows: the student obtains two semesters of classroom and laboratory work on Campus, followed by a summer of "Supervised Agricultural Placement" each year. However, it is possible for a person to attend the University in the Applied Farming Course for only two or more semesters and acquire considerable valuable information, and firsthand knowledge of farming. Upon satisfactory completion of four semesters on Campus, with a minimum of 64 semester credits plus two summers of Agricultural Placement in the order described, the student will be awarded a certificate of graduation.

The Agricultural Placement will be adapted to the personal needs and interests of the individual. This work may be conducted on the home farm, on some good commercial farm known to the student, or in some related agricultural occupation in which the student plans to engage. All placement situations selected by the student, through his own initiative, must be approved by the Applied Farming staff. Every effort will be made to find suitable placement positions for students who are unable to locate such positions for themselves.

This practical training, required during each summer, will be under the direct guidance and supervision of the teaching staff. Certain records and reports are required of the student while on placement, and no student will be granted a certificate until such records and reports are complete.

Major Fields of Instruction

There are four major fields of instruction available: Dairying, General Farming, Horticulture, and Poultry. The student will select the one he wishes to pursue and may elect courses in other fields in order to provide for a well-balanced program.

Facilities for Instruction

Facilities of the University, including the University Farm, Dairy Herd, Milk Plant, Poultry Plant, Horticulture Farm, Livestock Department, green-houses, and laboratories, are available for instructional purposes.

Student Aid

Employment is usually available for the student who needs it and is willing to work. Tuition Grants amounting to approximately one half the tuition are available in limited numbers for residents of New Hampshire. These Tuition Grants will be awarded to such applicants as appear upon investigation to be needy and deserving. It is hoped that every worthy individual who could not otherwise attend may be helped in this way. However, these funds are by no means inexhaustible and prospective students are urged to apply early if they need help.

Requests for Information

Persons who are interested in the Applied Farming Course should write for a complete descriptive catalogue. Such requests should be made to the Applied Farming Course, 14 Putnam Hall, University of New Hampshire, Durham, N. H.

The Departments of Chemistry, Mathematics, and Physics in the College of Technology, and the Departments of Botany, Entomology, and Home Economics in the College of Agriculture offer major programs for students in the College of Liberal Arts.

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

The College of Liberal Arts exists to serve society through meeting the vital educational needs of students on the Campus or in the State. While it prepares some students for scholarly achievement in graduate and professional schools and trains others for immediate gainful service, it develops in all its students understanding, interests, appreciation, and abilities which make possible the living of a richer and more satisfying life.

It is the purpose of the College of Liberal Arts to help all its students to become better adjusted to the world in which they live, to increase their efficiency as students, to learn how to work and to enjoy work as well as leisure, to solve their college and life problems, and to prepare themselves for intelligent participation in the activities of modern life as socially competent human beings willing to meet their responsibilities to society.

To accomplish its general educational purpose, the College of Liberal Arts co-operates with its students in their efforts to acquire:

(1) The ability to understand and use language, particularly English, for clear and effective interchange of ideas;

(2) An understanding and appreciation of the principles of the physical and biological sciences as they apply to man;

(3) An understanding of the principles underlying the social, psychological, political, and economic activities of man;

(4) An understanding and appreciation of all peoples and their cultures, both contemporary and historical, for intelligent participation in society;

(5) An understanding and appreciation of literature and the other arts;

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

- (6) An understanding and appreciation of the religious heritage of man and its significance for present-day living;
- (7) An understanding of personal and community health;
- (8) An understanding of the interrelation of the various fields of knowledge;
- (9) A competence in a selected field of knowledge, based on a concentration of studies for vocational or other interests;
- (10) Aid in selecting and preparing for a suitable profession or vocation;
- (11) A variety of interests outside of the selected field of knowledge, for the purpose of providing avocations or occupations for leisure time in post-college days;
- (12) An eagerness for knowledge as a means to continuous self-education;
- (13) The ability to seek, discover, and analyze data and therefrom make valid generalizations;
- (14) The ability to form unbiased and rational judgments of other individuals and their ideas;
- (15) The desire to discover and accept responsibilities, for the improvement of human living;
- (16) Principles and convictions about life which may change as experience increases, and upon which their whole conduct shall be founded.

ORGANIZATION

The development of common interests and the co-ordination of educational efforts in behalf of students in the College are promoted by Divisions as follows: Biological Sciences, Humanities, Physical Sciences, Social Sciences, and Teacher Education. The personnel of each division includes all Faculty members assigned to departments of the College, and to departments of other colleges which are authorized to offer major programs or prescribed curriculums in the College of Liberal Arts.

The Humanities Division is composed of the staffs of the Departments of The Arts, English, Languages, Music, and Philosophy. The Social Sciences Division is composed of the staffs of the Departments of Economics and Business Administration, Government, History, Hotel Administration, Psychology, Sociology, and the Department of Home Economics in the College of Agriculture. The Physical Sciences Division is composed of the staffs of the Department of Geology and Geography, and the Departments of Chemistry, Mathematics, and Physics in the College of Technology. The Biological Sciences Division is composed of the staffs of the Departments of Bacteriology and Zoology, and the Departments of Botany and Entomology in the College of Agriculture. The Division of Teacher Education consists of the members of the instructional staff of the University who are teaching professional courses in Education. These include courses in the problems of teaching the subjects taught in the public schools and the courses in Physical Education, in The Arts, and in Music, designed to prepare teachers.

The offerings of the College of Liberal Arts are divided into two groups: the General Liberal Arts Curriculum and the Prescribed Curriculums. The descriptions of the University Teacher Preparation Curriculums follow the Prescribed Curriculums.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

GENERAL LIBERAL ARTS CURRICULUM

The General Liberal Arts Curriculum is intended primarily to give opportunity for a broad, liberal program, a general education leading to the Bachelor of Arts Degree.

A student enrolled in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum will major in some subject or field of knowledge. Some of these major programs offer, at least in part, direct professional training. The General Liberal Arts Curriculum must not be confused with the Prescribed Curriculums. The latter are essentially professional in character.

The objectives, opportunities, and requirements of majors in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum are described in the paragraphs which follow. It is possible, also, for students in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum to arrange programs of study in addition to those described below, although such students will be held strictly to the University and College requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum. Students interested in arranging special programs of study should consult the Dean of the College.

The Arts

The courses in this Department are designed to develop intelligent enjoyment and a critical understanding of art, and to provide facilities for creative expression.

Several types of programs may be arranged for individual students. For some who have special creative abilities there are courses in Painting, Sculpture, Ceramics, Crafts, Photography, and Design. For others who are interested primarily in the application of art to business and industry, there are opportunities for study in Industrial Design, Advertising Art, Photography, Interior Decoration, and Costume Construction and Design. The Department also offers opportunity to all who are interested particularly in the critical appreciation of art.

Students majoring in other areas in which a knowledge of The Arts is desirable, such as Business, Education, and Hotel Administration, should consider taking one or several courses in The Arts.

Students interested in teaching art in the secondary schools are advised to consult the Art Education Curriculum.

Students majoring in The Arts are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are set forth on page 87. They must also earn 24 semester credits, with grades of C or better, in courses in The Arts. The following courses are required for Arts majors: Arts 23, Elementary Drawing and Design (does not carry major credit); Arts 31, 32, Introduction to The Arts. Courses in Dramatics, Literature and Music may be approved as related work for a major in The Arts with the consent of the supervisor and the College Dean. The courses of each major program are selected to meet the needs of the individual student, as determined by the student and his supervisor in personal conference. An assigned major work and/or a paper in the student's area of specialization will be required in the Senior Year.

Students interested in majoring in The Arts are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor G. R. Thomas, Room 209, Hewitt Hall.

Bacteriology

Students interested in the study of bacteria and related micro-organisms should register as majors in Bacteriology. Such students may prepare themselves for positions in federal, state or city laboratories and for employment in universities, experiment stations, research institutes, and industrial organizations.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

The program is arranged to meet the needs of two groups of majors; i.e., those who plan to obtain employment as laboratory technicians after receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree and those who plan to take graduate work in Bacteriology, which is necessary for advancement and preferred employment in the field. Students primarily interested in hospital laboratory work should consult the Medical Technology Curriculum.

Students who major in Bacteriology are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum, which are set forth on page 87. They are expected also to complete courses offered by the Department, and by related departments, to a total of 24 semester credits, with grades of C or better. A course in Organic Chemistry is also required for Bacteriology majors but cannot be counted as part of these 24 major credits. The courses of each major program are selected to meet the needs of the individual student, as determined by the student and his supervisor in personal conference.

Students interested in majoring in Bacteriology are advised to consult with the supervisor. Professor L. W. Slanetz, Room 215, Nesmith Hall.

Biology

Students who are interested in a broad training in the life sciences are advised to major in Biology. Such students will be required to take courses in Bacteriology, Botany, Entomology, and Zoology in building up a program. The field, however, is so inclusive that the majority of students will find it desirable to include one or two additional courses in one of the subdivisions, such as Bacteriology, Botany or Zoology. In addition, it is suggested to students who desire to study Biology for general education, that, those who are interested in Applied Biology and Secondary-School Teacher Preparation register as Biology majors.

TEACHER PREPARATION — Students who are planning to teach Biology in secondary schools are urged to plan for practice teaching during the Senior Year. As few positions are available in any year for teaching Biology alone, a student should include in his program of study courses which will qualify him for teaching other sciences.

APPLIED BIOLOGY (Fish and Game Management, etc.) — Students preparing for positions which involve the application of the science of Biology, such as those frequently listed by the Federal Civil Service and by the State Governments, should follow the general program of Biology majors and should elect one or two additional courses in fields of Applied Biology. The division is well fitted to prepare students for work in Fish and Game Management, Conservation Education, and in State Departments of Conservation. Students preparing for professions in this group should plan to secure advanced degrees, since positions in these fields are difficult to secure without graduate study. Students who are interested in hospital laboratory work should consult the Medical Technology Curriculum.

Satisfactory completion of the requirements of a Biology major will generally qualify students for admission to graduate schools to specialize in Biology or in one of its major subdivisions.

Students who major in Biology are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum (see page 87). They are expected also to complete courses offered by the Division to a total of 24 semester credits (exclusive of Biology 1-2) with a grade of C or better. The minimum course requirements for Biology majors include Bacteriology 1; Botany 3; one course selected from Botany 6, 12, 40, or 42; Entomology 2; Zoology

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

7; and one other course in Zoology (except Zoology 87-88 or 97-98). Biology majors are also required to complete Chemistry 3-4 and eight additional hours in physical science (Chemistry, Geology, Mathematics, Physics). These courses in physical science cannot be offered as major credit. Students interested in majoring in Biology are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor M. Jean Allen, Room 219A, Nesmith Hall.

Botany

Students who are interested in plant life are advised to consider registration as majors in Botany. Such students, except for those who concentrate in Botany as part of a general education, should expect to continue in graduate study here or elsewhere. Government work, institutional research, certain types of industrial positions, and college teaching are open to Botany students with advanced preparation. The principal fields of concentration in Botany are: (1) Pathology, (2) Physiology, (3) Taxonomy, (4) Ecology, and (5) Morphology and Cytology.

Students who major in Botany are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are set forth on page 87. They must also complete courses offered by the Department, to a total of 24 semester credits with grades of C or better. Courses in other departments closely related to the major courses may be counted with the consent of the major supervisor and the College Dean. A broad background in chemistry and other biological sciences is considered essential for most majors.

The courses of each major program are selected to meet the needs of the individual student, as determined by the student and his supervisor in personal conference.

Students interested in majoring in Botany are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor A. R. Hodgdon, Room 218, Nesmith Hall.

Chemistry

Students who are interested in the study of Chemistry will find opportunities in different fields such as (1) individual work involving the development of processes or production activities or sales work based on a scientific knowledge of the marketable product; (2) the teaching of Chemistry and allied subjects in secondary schools or of Chemistry in colleges; (3) graduate study for those students who are interested and particularly proficient in their undergraduate work.

The University offers two channels for study of Chemistry; majoring in the subject in the College of Liberal Arts, or enrolling in the Prescribed Curriculum in Chemistry in the College of Technology. In the College of Liberal Arts a major should complete Chemistry 3-4 or 3-6, General Chemistry, and Mathematics 11, 13, 14, 16, and in addition other courses offered by the Department in Analytical, Organic, and Physical Chemistry to a minimum of 24 semester credits, with grades of C or better. According to the student's interests, other supporting subjects may be elected to form a broad program of study and prepare for some one of the opportunities listed above. Majors in Chemistry are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum, which are set forth on page 87.

The Department is equipped to furnish the preparation necessary for teaching Chemistry in secondary schools. As very few positions are available in any year for teaching Chemistry alone, a student should consider a program of study which may qualify him for teaching Chemistry and other sciences, and should consult Professor Iddles and Professor T. O. Marshall of the Department of Education. Students who are interested in teaching Chemistry in college are advised to plan on graduate study. Students who plan to major in Chemistry are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor H. A. Iddles, Room 117, James Hall.

Economics

Students who are interested in economic and business life, but do not desire to specialize intensively in the Business Curriculum or the Secretarial Curriculum are advised to consider registration as majors in Economics. Students who intend to enter upon graduate study in Economics should plan to major in this field as undergraduates. An increasing number of opportunities in business and the public service are open to young people who possess graduate preparation in Economics.

Business positions in retail stores, chain stores, banks, sales organizations, general business offices, insurance, and other firms, have been successfully filled by graduates of the University who have majored in Economics. The Business Curriculum provides specific preparation for several of these fields by reason of its specialized requirements. A student who desires breadth in his education, with an emphasis on Economics, is counselled to major in the Department.

The Department is equipped to furnish the preparation necessary for teaching Economics in secondary schools. As very few positions are available in any year for teaching Economics alone, a student should consider a program of study which may qualify him for teaching Economics and other social studies, and should consult the supervisor, and Professor T. O. Marshall of the Department of Education.

Students who major in Economics are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are set forth on page 87. They are required to complete successfully Economics 1-2, Principles of Economics; and Economics 31, Economic and Business Statistics. They are required to complete 24 semester credits of Economics, with grades of C or better. Of these 24 semester credits, 12 credits must be in courses in Economics numbered 51 or higher. Major credit towards the 12 semester hours required in courses numbered above 50 will be approved in the case of transfer students only if such courses have been taken as upper division courses, i.e., in the Junior or Senior Year. Individual programs will be arranged to meet the needs of the individual student. Business Administration, 1-2, 21-22, 68, and 70 may be counted for major credit in Economics. Business Administration 68 and 70 may be counted in partial fulfillment of the requirement that 12 semester credits be in courses numbered 51 or higher.

Students who are interested in a program in the Department of Economics and Business Administration should consult the Chairman of the Department. Professor J. A. Hogan, Room 212, Morrill Hall. Students interested in a major in Economics will be assigned to Professor C. M. Degler or some other member of the Department who will act as the supervisor for the duration of the student's course.

Education

Students who are interested in preparing themselves for teaching in the secondary schools and who do not desire to follow any of the University Teacher Preparation Curricula should consult with Professor T. O. Marshall of the Department of Education, Room 3, Murkland Hall. Under most circumstances it is possible for such students to prepare themselves for teaching as majors in the subject-matter departments in which they desire to teach. In other instances, it may be wise for them to do their work as majors in Education.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

One group majoring in Education does so to prepare to teach in secondary schools. They are required to complete 24 semester credits in Education, with grades of C or better, which must include a minimum of six semester credits in supervised practice teaching and a minimum of 15 semester credits in Education courses other than practice teaching. These students are also required to complete, with an average grade of at least C, (1) a teaching major of at least 24 semester credits of post-secondary school work in a subject-matter field, and (2) either a second teaching major of at least 18 semester credits, or two teaching minors of 12 semester credits each.

A second group of majors in Education is composed of those students who are interested in teaching or in supervising in elementary schools, and who are graduates of two- or three-year Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges. They are required to complete, with grades of C or better, 12 semester credits of work in Elementary Education selected from the advanced courses in that subject offered in the Summer Session as a part of the total credits which are required of them as candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts. Such students will select the remainder of their major programs with the advice and approval of the Chairman of the Department of Education. (See special Language requirements, page 87).

While some courses offered in Education are designed to be of interest to the general student, only those students who have definitely decided to prepare themselves for the teaching profession should seriously consider majoring in the Department of Education. All students, before entering Education 61, are required to take a battery of teacher aptitude examinations.

Professor T. O. Marshall, Room 3, Murkland Hall, is the supervisor of all majors in Education. Arrangements will be made, however, to enable majors in Education to be advised in particular problems by members of the staff who are best qualified to be of service to them.

English

Majors in English are divided into three groups: first, those students who seek a liberal education with emphasis upon the study of English and American literature; second, those who plan, immediately after graduation, to begin their chosen work and desire as a foundation for it a greater knowledge of English and American literature; and third, those who intend to use their undergraduate work in English and American literature as a preparation for graduate work. Concentration in the field of English and American literature is of definite value to students in the second group who are planning to enter library work, radio, publishing, writing, the theater, or teaching in the secondary school. For all three groups, study of English and American literature trains the mind and broadens the understanding.

The Department of English offers the student wishing to major in English two programs of study: the literature major and the teaching major.

I. A student taking the literature major, in addition to meeting in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum, which are set forth on page 87 of the Catalogue, is required to take without major credit English 25, English 35, or English 43. He must earn grades of C or better in 24 semester credits in courses in English and American literature numbered above 50. For his major he must elect one semester's work in the Great Figure courses; one semester of work in each of two Century or Period courses; one semester of work in each of two Advanced American Literature courses; and one semester of work in Type courses. He is required to take two semesters of Shakespeare (which cannot be counted in satisfaction of the requirements of a Great Figure course). At the end of the Senior Year he must pass a written examination on English and American literature. To prepare the major for the examination the Department issues a syllabus of the work to be covered.

To supplement his major program, the literature major is advised to take courses in history, particularly in English, Modern European, and American history; the survey of Greek and Roman Literature; the survey of modern European literature; and at least one modern language. If he plans, upon graduation, to undertake work for the doctoral degree, he must obtain an ability to read French, German, and Latin literature.

II. The teaching major must meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum (page 87). The program gives him the opportunity to meet the New Hampshire certification requirements for teaching. He is also required to take the following courses: English 13, 14, An Introduction to English Literature; English 16, the second semester of A Survey of American Literature; English 25, Advanced Composition; English 27, English Grammar; English 22, Writing for the Newspaper, English 33, Discussion and Debate, or English 48, Dramatics Workshop; English 43, 44, 45, Reading For Thought (exposition, fiction, and poetry); English 57 or 58, Shakespeare's Plays; English-Education 91, Problems in the Teaching of High-School English; and English 99, Speech for Teachers. In addition the teaching major must earn grades of C or better in 24 semester hours of work in the courses listed above.

Students who are interested in majoring in English should consult the supervisor, Professor S. H. Bingham, Room 118, Murkland Hall.

Entomology

The Department of Entomology offers various courses for students who wish to concentrate on the study of insects, insect life, and the control of insects. Although the field of employment is limited, there are definite opportunities available to those who are qualified. The majority of these opportunities are in the public service, although commercial and industrial firms also employ college graduates who have concentrated in Entomology. Graduate study is desirable for the student who seeks high achievement in Entomology. A more intensive program in Entomology may be secured in the Prescribed Curriculum offered in the College of Agriculture.

Students who major in Entomology are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum, which are set forth on page 87. They are expected also to complete successfully courses offered by the Department, to a total of 24 semester credits, with grades of C or better. Courses in other departments may be counted with the consent of the major supervisor and the College Dean. Outlines of specific suggested programs of study are available to the student upon request to Professor J. G. Conklin, supervisor, Room 16, Nesmith Hall.

Geology

The field of Geology includes the earth sciences. This is not alone the study of minerals, rocks, and evidence of prehistoric life. It includes also the history of the earth from its beginning, as well as the evolution of the landscape, and other environmental features which have influenced the development of life on the earth, including man.

Students who are interested in the earth sciences, both those who expect to make some phase of Geology their life work, and those who desire to build a program of liberal studies around a core of geological and related subjects, are advised to register as majors in Geology.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

The search for new sources of essential mineral resources and the development of new uses for certain minerals have emphasized the need for men trained in the earth sciences. Positions as mining geologists, petroleum geologists, mine operators, state survey geologists, and university and college professors of geology and mineralogy have been successfully filled by graduates of the University who have majored in Geology. Other former major students are teaching in high schools or are in business, some in fields where their geologic preparation is useful, as in the cement and mining-machine industries.

Students who major in Geology are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum, which are set forth on page 87. They are expected also to complete Geology 1-2, Principles of Geology, and, in addition, courses in Geology or related courses approved by the supervisor and the College Dean to a total of 24 semester credits with grades of C or better. The courses of each major program are selected to meet the needs of the individual student, as determined by the student and his supervisor in personal conference.

At the end of the Senior Year, a student, who majors in Geology, must prepare a satisfactory paper, approved by his supervisor, in his field of concentration.

Students who are interested in majoring in Geology are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor T. R. Meyers, Room 112, Conant Hall. After a student's major interest is determined, the advice, assistance, and counsel of one or more additional members of the Department will be sought where a special area of concentration is contemplated by the student. For example, the student whose special interest lies in geographic or meteorologic fields will be assigned to the staff member responsible for these fields.

Government

The courses offered by the Department of Government are designed to aid the student in gaining a knowledge of the nature, functions, and problems of Government, and of the place of Government in the modern world. For this general purpose, courses are offered in public affairs — local, state, national, and international. Some of the courses listed by the Department are chiefly intended to provide information needed for intelligent and responsible citizenship and to provide a part of a liberal education. Others are of a specialized nature and have been planned to provide basic preparation for professional work.

By specializing in one of several programs of Government, the major student may prepare himself for (1) graduate study in Political Science and Government, (2) Public Administration, (3) Research in Government, (4) the study of Law, (5) graduate study for the Foreign Service, (6) teaching Government courses in secondary schools. Students who are preparing to teach Government courses in the secondary schools should check their planned program of study with Professor T. O. Marshall of the Department of Education. Ordinarily, prospective teachers in government will find it necessary to teach related courses in the social sciences.

For students with a special interest in Public Administration, a limited number of Internships in Public Office (Soc. Sci. 81) have been established, which permit Senior students to obtain firsthand knowledge about public service by working (for college credit) in an office at the State Capitol for a semester. Majors in Government also have an unusual opportunity for mastering research techniques and gaining practical information concerning state and local government in New Hampshire through study in the Bureau of Government Research.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Majors in Government are expected to meet all requirements for the General Liberal Arts Curriculum on page 87. All major students are required to take Government 1, American Government, and Government 2, Problems of American Government. Students who expect to major in Government are advised to register for these courses during the Freshman Year. Students majoring in Government are also required to complete a research paper approved by the staff. This project constitutes the chief part of the Research Problems course (Government 65 or 66). A major consists of a minimum of 24 semester credits of work with grades of C or better in Government and in any related courses which may be approved by the supervisor and the College Dean. Not more than 9 credits earned as an Intern, in Social Science 81, may be counted toward the completion of the major requirements. Each student will be counselled individually and his program of study planned for his needs.

Students interested in electing Government as a major should meet with the supervisor, Professor J. T. Holden, Room 204, Morrill Hall.

History

History, as a field in which to major, may be of interest to the following groups of students: (1) Those who wish to do college teaching in History. Graduate study is indispensable for such work, but preparation may be made for it by a certain amount of undergraduate specialization. (2) Those who plan to teach History in secondary schools. For such a position, training in other social studies is highly desirable, if not absolutely necessary. The student is therefore advised to keep in touch with the Department of Education as well as with the Department of History, with a view to satisfying teaching certification standards and building a well-rounded program of studies. (3) Those who intend to enter other professional fields in which a considerable amount of historical knowledge is desirable. Such a field, for example, might be that of library training in which an historical preparation would rank with study in literature as a background, or the increasingly important profession of Archivist. (4) Any students who feel free to plan the college program without too specific reference to a vocation, and who have a special interest in History.

Students who major in History are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are set forth on page 87. They must also earn 24 semester credits in courses in History, with grades of C or better, exclusive of History 1, 2. The 24 semester credits with grades of C or better may be earned in elective courses, in required courses, or both. Philosophy 55, 56, The Philosophy of History is a required course for all History majors and may be counted for major credit.

Any department in the College of Liberal Arts may be considered a related department, except Bacteriology, Geology and Geography, and Zoology.

Students planning to major in History should consult the supervisor, Professor P. M. Marston, Room 204C, Demeritt Hall.

History and Literature

Students who desire a broad education may take a combined major in History and Literature. Students who plan to enter library service may also find here a desirable major. The program of this major offers an opportunity to study the history and literature together of Greece and Rome, of France, of Germany, or of Spain. A still broader survey of European history and literature is also possible. The program involves the completion of 24 semester credits with grades of C or better in one of the following groups of courses, of which 12 credits should be in History and 12 in Languages:

- (a) History 11, 12, 13, 14; Philosophy 55, 56;
Latin 5-6; 53-54; 55-56;

A student who has met the major requirements in History and Literature and the other requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum as listed on pages 87 and 88 will receive the Degree of Bachelor of Arts with the notation "History and Literature" on the Commencement Program.

Students' registration cards may be signed by either Professor P. M. Marston, Chairman of the Department of History, Room 204C, Demeritt Hall, or Professor J. S. Walsh, Chairman of the Department of Languages, Room 119, Murkland Hall.

Students electing Group (b), (c), or (d) will be encouraged to do a considerable part of their reading for the History courses, in Spanish, French, or German, respectively.

Home Economics

Students who are interested in clothing design and construction, interior decoration, home furnishings, child care, preparation for homemaking, or in obtaining a broad education, particularly applicable to the needs of women, are advised to consider registration as majors in Home Economics. Such a program would not be as completely professional nor would it qualify the student so thoroughly as would one of the professional curriculums in the department of Home Economics in the College of Agriculture. A broad general program would serve as pre-professional for further training in child guidance, positions in the clothing and textile fields, salesmanship, interior decoration, and other similar lines. Students who wish to follow such programs should consult with the supervisor. Several elective courses are offered for, or are open to, students who do not wish to major in Home Economics.

While many interesting and worth-while opportunities are open to Home Economics majors, there are some fields which demand prescribed curriculums. Special programs are arranged to prepare hospital dietitians, institution administrators, teachers of Home Economics, and Extension workers. (See College of Agriculture.)

Majors in Home Economics are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are set forth on page 87. They are expected to complete 24 semester credits with grades of C or better in courses in Home Economics, exclusive of Home Economics 1, 2 and including Home Economics 3, 4; 15-16; 33 and 35. Related courses in other departments may be counted for major credit with the consent of the supervisor and the College Dean.

Students who are interested in a major in Home Economics should consult with the supervisor, Miss Frances Platts, Room 211, Pettee Hall.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Languages

A major student in the Department of Languages may have a professional or cultural objective. Many majors plan to enter secondary-school or college teaching. For such students there is no hard and fast curriculum. The arrangement of Language courses is sufficiently flexible to meet the individual's needs. As most language teachers are obliged to teach more than one language, or one language in combination with other subjects, students should not plan to concentrate in a single language and its literature, but to map out a program including two languages (preferably French and Latin), or one language with a number of courses in English or History. Students who may desire departmental recommendations for teaching a modern language should include French 13-14, German 13-14, or Spanish 13-14 in their major programs. Prospective teachers should consult the Chairman of the Department, Professor J. S. Walsh, and Professor T. O. Marshall of the Department of Education. Some departmental majors plan to enter library service. Most library schools require two foreign languages.

Major students who do not plan to teach usually have a cultural objective. Here again the flexibility of the departmental offerings makes it possible to arrange individual programs for individual students. Some students find a special appeal in a single foreign literature and wish to explore it thoroughly. Others find that the study of two or three languages and literatures is a broadening and stimulating experience.

For non-majors, the Department offers practical courses which are a valuable aid to careers in foreign service (consular, diplomatic, commercial, military, or naval), journalism (for international news, foreign books, and the like), interpreting, translating, travel agencies, radio announcing, etc. A knowledge of foreign languages is invaluable for the historian, the architect, the musician, the artist, the political and social scientist, and for any citizen who is interested in foreign affairs. The biologist, chemist, or physicist should always be able to read foreign articles and keep up with research in his field in foreign countries. As most graduate schools require a knowledge of one or two foreign languages, all students who may possibly do graduate work in any field should obtain a reading knowledge of French and German. The elementary courses in French, German, Italian, and Spanish are planned particularly to help students acquire an ability to read and to speak the respective languages; at the same time, through reading and oral work, the student learns something of the history, institutions, customs, and spirit of a foreign country. Latin is the basis of all language study and the study of the Romance languages in particular.

For non-majors there are offered three courses which are given in English. These courses offer respectively a Survey of Greek and Latin Literature (in translations), a Survey of Modern European Literatures, (in translation), and an Introduction to Romance Philology.

Students majoring in the department of Language must designate French, German, Latin, Romance Languages, or Spanish as their particular major. Elementary courses (French 1-2, German 1-2, Greek 1-2, Italian 1-2, Latin 1-2, and Spanish 1-2) cannot be counted for major credit. A major in a single language (French, German, Latin, or Spanish) must comprise a minimum of 18 major credits in a particular language.¹ The remaining 6 credits may be earned in other designated courses in the Department. A major in Romance Languages must comprise courses in both French and Spanish (not including French 1-2 or Spanish 1-2) with a minimum of 12 major credits in each.

1. The requirements for a major in a single language are effective for students entering the University after September 1, 1919.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

The special supervisor for majors in French is Professor Clifford S. Parker; for majors in German, Professor A. P. Danoff; for majors in Latin and in Romance Languages, Professor J. S. Walsh; for majors in Spanish, Professor J. Berzunza. All offices of the Department of Languages are in Murkland Hall.

Attention is called to the combined major in History and Literature.

Mathematics

Over and above the benefits to be derived from the study of Mathematics for its own interest, it is being recognized, ever more forcefully, that such study will give the student essential and invaluable equipment for any scientific pursuit. The courses in Mathematics are intended to provide a sound preparation in the fundamentals of the subject as well as to offer a sufficient variety of subject matter to meet diversified interests. Courses are designed to prepare the student, who majors in Mathematics, for opportunities in various fields. Among them are (1) work in statistics, such as government agencies, business, life insurance, and the application of statistics to problems in Education, Economics, Sociology, Psychology, Medicine, and Genetics; (2) teaching mathematics in secondary schools; (3) graduate study for those students who are interested and especially proficient in their undergraduate work.

All students who major in Mathematics must meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum as stated on page 87. They must complete at least 24 semester credits in Mathematics, with grades of C or better, including Mathematics 19. Majors in Mathematics, preparing for secondary school teaching, must include Mathematics 9 in their programs. (Mathematics 2, 9, 11, and 13, do not count for major credit.) In order to meet sooner the prerequisites and to be better prepared for subsequent courses they should plan, if possible, to complete the courses Mathematics 11, 13, 14, and 16 in the Freshman year.

All students who are interested in a Mathematics major should consult the supervisor, Professor D. B. Ames, Room 203, Demeritt Hall.

Music

The Department of Music offers a major program in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum for students who desire to place an emphasis on Music while pursuing a broad, general program of study. The study of music history, literature, and appreciation gives the student cultural values which should enrich his entire life. Music study tends to increase understanding and appreciation of other fields, including the Fine Arts, Language, and Literature. The instruction offered in the Department of Music sponsors musicality (appreciation and general comprehension of music form), musicianship (musical astuteness and scholarship), ability to perform, and capacity to teach, supplemented by the general education required by the College of Liberal Arts.

Instrumental instruction and vocal instruction are given in private lessons. Class instruction provides for the pursuit of academic music studies. Student recitals, instrumental and vocal ensembles, Men's Glee Club, Women's Glee Club, the University Concert Choir, the University Symphony Orchestra, and the University Symphonic Band and Marching Band afford both laboratory and concert experience.

Students who major in Music are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum, which are set forth on page 87. They must also earn grades of C or better in all courses of the music major.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

The Department of Music offers the students three options in concentration leading to the Bachelor of Arts Degree with a major in Music.

I. An option stressing music history. The following courses are required: Music 9-10, 11-12, 13-14, 15-16, 51-52 or 97-98, 43, 45, 46, 47, 48, 80, 81, 82, 83; 8 credits in Applied Music 23, Piano. Recommended — Music 1, 2, 3W or 3M, 5, 7, 41-42, 33-34.

II. Applied music option which emphasizes training in voice, piano, organ, violin, woodwinds, or bass. (A student who wishes to declare a major in Applied Music must take an examination before the staff of the department of Music.) The following courses are required: Music 9-10, 11-12, 13-14, 15-16, 45, 46; 4 credits in advanced theory or literature courses; 16 credits in Applied Music in principal field; a senior recital. Recommended — Music 33-34, 1, 2, 3W or 3M, 5, 7, 97-98.

III. A theory option stressing musical composition. The following courses are required: Music 9-10, 11-12, 13-14, 15-16, 51-52, 71-72, 97-98, 45, 46; 4 credits in advanced history; 8 credits in Applied Music 23, Piano. Recommended — Music 1, 2, 3W or 3M, 5, 7, 33-34.

Prospective majors in Music are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor Karl H. Bratton, Room 101, Ballard Hall.

Philosophy

This Department proceeds on the assumption that Philosophy, which has sometimes borne the reproach of being impractical, is in reality very practical and can make its contributions to actual living. It is interested in the diffusion of the philosophic spirit among all students as well as in developing specialists in Philosophy. It proceeds on the belief that Philosophy is (1) an attitude, (2) a method, and (3) a body of knowledge which may greatly aid in the development of wisdom.

Students in any of the following groups may find Philosophy of value. (At present the department does not offer opportunity for a major.)

1. Those for whom the greatest intellectual need is to become at home in the whole world of thought through an inclusive investigation of nature and man. Such individuals, equally interested in both the social studies and the humanities, but without a preference for any as a specialty, might find in the breadth and depth of Philosophy the field of partial concentration of greatest value to them.

2. Those whose interest in Philosophy, or in social or humanistic studies, suggests the teaching of Philosophy as a vocation.

3. Those planning to attend theological schools or to specialize in religious education.

Physics

The major in Physics is intended to prepare students for a diversity of interests in the application of this fundamental science. Broad in scope, the program provides many electives so that a student may supplement his work in Physics by that in other fields such as mathematics and the allied sciences. The intermediate courses are purely theoretical in nature and are intended to give the student a thorough grounding in fundamentals in a particular branch of physics. Some of these courses are supplemented by appropriate laboratory work illustrating some of the basic principles. Opportunity is given in the Senior Year for a student to do some elemental investigation of his own choosing under guidance. Graduates of this major are eligible for employment in the various industrial, government and armed services laboratories or they may continue study in the academic field leading to more advanced degrees.

Students who major in Physics are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are described on page 87. They are required to complete 24 semester credits, with grades of C or better and must elect Physics 21-22 as the introductory course in place of Physics 1-2. Since proper preparation in mathematics is essential to a good understanding of Physics, the student must plan to elect in the Freshman Year, if possible, Mathematics 11, 13, 14, 16 in order to have the necessary prerequisites for Physics 21-22 and the courses that follow in both mathematics and physics.

Students who wish to major in Physics are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor F. A. Scott, Room 103, DeMeritt Hall. After a student's major interest is determined, the advice and counsel of an additional member of the Department will be sought where a special area of concentration is contemplated by the student.

Psychology

Some students may wish to major in Psychology for the purposes of understanding themselves and others more adequately and of gaining knowledge of scientific methods of studying human behavior. Others may not have these aims in mind but also may wish to specialize in Psychology to prepare themselves for one of the following professional objectives: (1) college teaching; (2) personnel work in industry or government; (3) supervision of psychological testing in mental hospitals, juvenile courts, city school systems, child guidance clinics, and the Federal Civil Service; (4) counseling and guidance in secondary schools and colleges; (5) clinical practice.

Students who contemplate major work in Psychology as a means of preparing for a profession should keep in mind the necessity of graduate work. For non-majors, a background of Psychology will be an asset in teaching, nursing, social work, business and industrial management, or professions, such as medicine and law, in which human relations are of primary importance.

Students who major in Psychology are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are set forth on page 87. They are required to complete 24 semester credits with grades of C or better, in courses in Psychology and in such related courses as may be approved by the supervisor and the College Dean. Psychology 98, Seminar in Psychology, is the only course required of all majors. Psychology 57, Experimental Psychology, and Psychology 67, Statistics in Psychology, should be taken by all psychology majors who are planning for graduate work. A comprehensive paper on a subject approved by the supervisor is required. This paper is the core project in Psychology 98. Students who wish to major in Psychology are advised to consult with Professor Herbert A. Carroll, Room 202, Conant Hall.

A graduate program of study is offered for those students who are interested in earning the Master of Arts Degree in Psychology. (See Catalogue issue of the Graduate School for further information.)

Sociology

The major in Sociology is for (1) students who desire a liberal education with emphasis on study of the organization and differentiation of contemporary society, particularly study of the research methods developed in recent years for a better understanding of social phenomena; (2) students who intend to do graduate work in Sociology; and (3) students who plan to attend a graduate school of social work but prefer a broader choice of undergraduate electives than the prescribed Social Service Curriculum permits.

The Social Service Curriculum, with its supervised field work and its concentration on professional and preprofessional courses, not only prepares students to enter graduate schools of social work but also has been quite successful, for a number of years, in preparing them for junior positions in social work prior to graduate study.

Students who wish to teach Sociology in secondary schools are advised that such teachers usually have to teach related social studies. Students with this vocational aim should consult with Professor T. O. Marshall of the Department of Education.

Majors in Sociology are expected to meet all the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum (page 87). They are expected to take Sociology 1, Principles of Sociology, and Sociology 4, Problems of Social Disorganization during their Freshman or Sophomore Years. In addition, they must complete a minimum of 24 semester credits with grades of C or better in Sociology (or in any related course approved by the supervisor and the College Dean) including Sociology 92, Senior Seminar and either Sociology 75, Methods of Social Research or Sociology 84, Methods of Social Progress. Sociology majors must also complete six semester credits of advanced work in one of the following fields: Economics, Government, Home Economics, History, Psychology or Zoology. At the end of the Senior Year they must pass a written comprehensive examination for which Sociology 92 is designed to prepare them.

Students who are interested in choosing Sociology as a major should consult the supervisor, Professor Raymond E. Bassett, Room 206, DeMeritt Hall.

Zoology

Zoology is the science of animal life; the study of the structure, functions, development and classification of the various animal forms. The student may major in Zoology (1) because of a general educational interest in the subject; (2) because of his avocational interest in nature study; or (3) to prepare for professional work in pure science or in Applied Zoology. Fish and Game Management, important in the conservation of our natural resources, is an example of Applied Zoology. Students who are interested in entering the fields of Applied Zoology should plan to secure advanced degrees since positions in these fields are difficult to obtain without graduate study. Undergraduate preparation for students who are interested in Applied Zoology generally should parallel that of any student planning to enter graduate work in Zoology.

The University of New Hampshire's location on tidewater and near the open ocean provides an unusual opportunity for the study of Marine Zoology and Marine Ecology.

All students who major in Zoology are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum (see page 87) with grades of C or better in 24 semester credits in Zoology. Related courses in other departments may be counted for major credit with the consent of the supervisor and the College Dean. Minimum course requirements for Zoology majors include: Zoology 7, 8, and 18; Botany 3 or 6; and eight credits in courses numbered from 51-100. Zoology majors are also required to present credit for Chemistry 3-4 and a course in Organic Chemistry. (Chem. 45, 47-46, or Agr. Chem. 1.) These courses in Chemistry cannot be counted as part of the 24 major credits.

Students who are interested in a Zoology major are advised to consult the supervisor, Professor W. L. Bullock, Room 107A, Nesmith Hall.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

OTHER PROGRAMS OF STUDY

Although pursuing his studies in the College of Liberal Arts in one of the major fields just outlined, the student may also prepare himself for some related objective which he may have in mind. Three of these are described below and there is enough freedom of election to make it possible for the student, in consultation with his supervisor, to arrange others.

Institutional Management

The student who wishes to work in the field of Institutional Management (the care and maintenance of any form of household from the individual family dwelling, to the hotel, hospital, sanitarium or other housing of the many) will find in this Catalogue under the offerings of the Departments of Home Economics, Hotel Administration, and Economics and Business Administration a variety of courses fitted to his needs. Such students should consult for further information on this subject Professor Anna M. Light, Room 209, Pettie Hall, or Professor Raymond R. Starke, Room 105, Conant Hall.

Pre-Dental

Pre-dental preparation parallels very closely the Pre-medical curriculum although students may elect almost any one of the General Liberal Arts Majors. The student's program should include courses in Comparative Anatomy, Physics, and Organic Chemistry. Students who plan to enter dental school, either before or after achieving the Bachelor of Arts degree, are advised to consult with Professor W. L. Bullock, Room 107A, Nesmith Hall.

Pre-Law

While the bar association and law schools do not prescribe a specific undergraduate curriculum for future lawyers, they recommend that a student who contemplates entering law school should plan a study program which will develop breadth of view and facility of expression. They also urge him to acquire a background of information concerning the society in which he lives and the forces which have shaped modern institutions.

The courses considered most helpful are those developing oral and written expression; dealing with man's social, economic, and political institutions; providing an understanding of the human mind; and developing the art of thinking. Finally, since the case method of study is used in law schools, courses devoted to the intensive study of the subject matter are considered helpful as an introduction to the materials and the discipline which the student will experience in law school.

A number of law schools require the Law School Admission Test of students seeking admission; each law school will advise a student upon request whether or not he will be expected to take the test in partial satisfaction of admission requirements. Particulars on the examination may be obtained at the Government Department office.

Students who plan to enter law school after graduation are advised to counsel with Professor J. T. Holden, Room 201, Morrill Hall, as soon as they have made their decision.

PREScribed CURRICULUMS

Several prescribed programs of study intended to provide preparation for business or professional life are available to students in the College of Liberal Arts. They are arranged in such manner as to permit considerable specialization while conserving the breadth and general culture of the students enrolled in them. They are less broad and general, however, than the General Liberal Arts Curriculum. They are definitely professional in character. All Prescribed Curriculums lead to the Degree of Bachelor of Science.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Business Curriculum

One curriculum with an option is offered in this field: (1) a curriculum for students who do not desire to specialize in any particular phase of business; (2) an option for those desiring to specialize in accounting. The Business Curriculum provides for general education as well as professional preparation in business subjects. For students who wish to specialize in marketing and distribution, in finance, or in labor and personnel administration, a list of courses in these areas is offered. Students may choose electives from these groups. Many of the graduates of the Business Curriculum are successfully filling responsible positions with accounting, banking, insurance, merchandising, and manufacturing concerns.

The Business Curriculum is planned to emphasize foundation or general courses in the Freshman and Sophomore Years with specialization coming largely in the Junior and Senior Years. The program is outlined on pp. 90-91. Students registered for this Curriculum are held for the requirements expected of students in all Prescribed Curriculums which are set forth on page 88. Students pursuing the Business Curriculum must obtain grades of C or better in 24 semester credits from the following courses: Business Administration 1-2, 21-22, 23, 34; Economics 1-2, 3, 25, 31, 51, 53, 56; and English 35. Of the required courses in Economics and Business Administration, at least 12 semester credits shall be earned at the University of New Hampshire.

Students pursuing the Accounting option must obtain grades of C or better in 24 semester credits from the following courses: Business Administration 1-2, 3-4, 7-8, 21-22, 23, 55, 56, 57, 59, 68; Economics 1-2, 3, 25, 31, 53, 56; and English 35. Of the required courses in Economics and Business Administration at least 12 semester credits shall be earned at the University of New Hampshire, at least six of these semester credits shall be in accounting courses.

Students interested in a program in the Department of Economics and Business Administration should consult the Chairman of the Department, Professor J. A. Hogan, Room 212, Morrill Hall. Students who choose to follow the Business Curriculum will be assigned to Professor A. W. Johnson or some other member of the Department who will act as the supervisor for the duration of the course.

Hotel Administration Curriculum

Young men and women to whom a career in hotel work makes an appeal are invited to follow this Curriculum. Hotel work is no sinecure; hard labor and long hours are the inevitable condition of final success. The details of the Curriculum will make these facts evident.

To do well in hotel work requires on the part of the student real effort, and the eventual acquisition of wide knowledge in an extensive range of subject matter. On the other hand, there are many positions open to hotel graduates; the hotel industry is an expanding one, and the opportunities for proprietorship depend chiefly on the ability and initiative of the individual.

The Curriculum is designed to give the student the well-rounded education demanded of the hotel executive, and is not confined strictly to professional work. The program includes, besides professional subjects, cultural courses in the Humanities and the Sciences, both physical and social.

The curriculum is so specialized that three college years are needed to fulfill requirements. Regular students should enter the curriculum no later than the fall semester of the Sophomore year. Transfer students usually cannot expect to complete requirements in two years.

The basic work comprises four main divisions: Foods, Engineering, Accounting, and Hotel Management Problems. About three-fourths of the total Curriculum is prescribed by the requirements of the Department in these four groups, together with the University and College requirements, leaving about one-fourth of the time open for electives in allied subjects or others of the student's choice.

To be graduated from the Hotel Administration curriculum, a student must have completed satisfactorily the requirements of all prescribed curriculums as set forth on page 88, the courses as detailed on page 92, and further he must have attained a cumulative grade point average of 2.4 or better in the following courses: Business Administration 9-10; Electrical Engineering 31; Hotel Administration 5, 26; Home Economics 15-16, 45, 49-50; and Mechanical Engineering 40.

To make certain that the hotel education program contains some experience under working conditions, each student is required to secure before graduation a minimum of 20 points of hotel practice credit in addition to the scholastic requirements of the Curriculum. This will be gained through work in hotels where supervision will be authorized, regular reports submitted by the student, and the grade of work reported by the employer. Each week of work will constitute one point. Not more than 12 points may be secured for any one type of work performed, nor more than 20 points from a given hotel.

Students interested in Hotel Administration are advised to consult the supervisor, Professor R. R. Starke, Room 105, Conant Hall.

Medical Technology Curriculum

There is now a large and increasing demand for Medical Technologists. Public health and medicine depend more and more upon the laboratory, and professional technicians are needed to perform various laboratory techniques and tests such as blood typing, blood counts, tissue sections, urinalyses, and bacteriological and serological tests. Positions in this field are available in hospital laboratories, physicians' and surgeons' clinics, and in health department laboratories.

Students who are interested in becoming Medical Technologists should register in the prescribed curriculum in Medical Technology. The program has been so arranged that the student will start a 12-month laboratory training period in an approved hospital school of medical technology at the beginning of the second semester of the Senior Year. After successfully completing this hospital program, the student is awarded 16 credits towards the Bachelor of Science Degree and is also qualified for the examination for the Medical Technologist's certificate in a period of 4½ years. Students who complete this program are well qualified for work in any hospital or medical laboratory. (See page 93).

Students in the Medical Technology Curriculum must obtain grades of C or better in 24 semester credits from the following courses: Zoology 17, 18; Bacteriology 1, 8, 53; Chemistry 25, 45; and Agricultural Chemistry 56.

Students who in their Junior or Senior Years decide not to complete the hospital laboratory course (Biology 62) will find it possible to transfer to a major in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum. For example, they will have satisfied all the requirements for a Bacteriology major except the special language requirement. The requirement may be met by passing a reading test based on two years of a language taken in high school or one year of college language.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Students interested in the prescribed curriculum in Medical Technology are advised to consult with the supervisor Professor L. W. Slanetz, Room 215, Nesmith Hall.

Nursing Curriculum

Any woman student who is interested in nursing as a career is encouraged to consider the Nursing Curriculum. It affords opportunity for examinations for registration as a nurse and enables the matriculant also to secure a college degree. The breadth of training beyond that usually received in a hospital training school is increasingly in demand, particularly for those who aspire to executive or supervisory positions. The Curriculum prepares for nursing and also permits the student some specialization in other fields related to nursing. (See page 94).

The student must satisfactorily complete three years of work in residence at the University of New Hampshire, and graduate from a school of nursing approved by the University. The length of the training period will vary with the several schools of nursing.

A student registered in the Curriculum is held for the requirements expected of students in all Prescribed Curriculums which are set forth on page 88. This Curriculum is intended to precede hospital training.

Students interested in selecting the Nursing Curriculum are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor E. T. Richardson, Room 104, Nesmith Hall.

Occupational Therapy Curriculum

An ally to the medical profession, Occupational Therapy is any activity, mental or physical, prescribed by a physician, and administered by a registered therapist, to aid in the recovery or the rehabilitation of the patient.

Its early adaption, long before World War I, grew from the knowledge that occupation is nature's best medicine. From its use in the first World War as a morale agent, it has expanded to the point of recognition by the American Medical Association as an important treatment in many types of illnesses.

The course admits both men and women who can meet entrance requirements.

The successful practice of Occupational Therapy requires not only thorough academic preparation but also suitable personality combined with judgment, dependability, tact, tolerance, patience, and will to serve. A high degree of mental and physical health is essential. Occupational Therapy requires physical vitality and emotional stability.

Before the beginning of the Sophomore year, in the case of students who are interested in the Occupational Therapy curriculum, (or before admission into this Curriculum in the case of students who transfer from other majors or from other colleges,) a series of tests will be given to assist the supervisor in advising the student of his or her fitness for continuing in or entering this Curriculum. (See page 95).

Because of the highly specialized nature of the Occupational Therapy Curriculum, students are advised to enter into this program not later than the beginning of their Sophomore year; otherwise, they should expect to spend additional time in working toward the Bachelor of Science degree.

The Curriculum in Occupational Therapy is designed to satisfy the requirements of the American Medical Association as well as to offer a four-year course leading to the Bachelor of Science Degree. This includes the theoretical subjects needed in the medical field as well as a wide range of crafts and skills used in therapy and recreational, educational, and pre-professional subjects.

It is recommended that each student interested in the Occupational Therapy Curriculum spend one summer in an occupational therapy department in either a hospital or a crippled children's camp. This should be done before the student enters the clinical affiliation program.

At the completion of the requirements of the Curriculum, the student will spend ten months in clinical training in affiliated hospitals or services under the direction of a registered Occupational Therapist. When this internship is satisfactorily completed, the student is entitled to a Certificate of Occupational Therapy. The student is then qualified to take examination for registry in the American Occupational Therapy Association. The standard examination is sent out by the Association and administered by the University. A fee of $10 is required by the Association for each examination. While the present demand for qualified therapists is far in excess of the supply, there are relatively few job opportunities for those who have not completed the requirements for and entered the Registry of the American Occupational Therapy Association.

A clinical training fee of $60 for residents of New Hampshire and $135 for non-residents of the State is payable to the University by those students who enter the clinical training program.

Ten months of clinical training in affiliated hospitals is divided as follows:

Psychiatric conditions — three months

Physical disabilities (surgical, neuromuscular and orthopedic) — two months

Tuberculosis — two months

Pediatrics — one month

General medicine and surgery — one month

One month of additional work in one of the above fields as arranged by the student and the supervisor.

The American Medical Association requires a physical examination including a tuberculin test prior to hospital training.

Expenses vary during the period of clinical training. Room, board, and laundry are given students by some hospitals; meals only in other hospitals; while others offer training only. In all cases, the University must approve living arrangements for student affiliates. Students will furnish regulation uniforms which are required for clinical training.

Students who are registered in this Curriculum are held for the requirements expected of students in all Prescribed Curriculums which are set forth on page 88, and in addition must obtain grades of C or better in the following courses: Zoology 17, 18, 19, 64; Occupational Therapy 41, 44, 46, 49-50. Students interested in this Curriculum are advised to consult with the supervisor, Miss Esther Drew, Room 207, Hewitt Hall.

Pre-Medical Curriculum

Young men and women who are interested in careers as physicians or surgeons may select the Pre-Medical Curriculum. Students who successfully complete this Curriculum will be eligible for admission to class A medical schools. However, owing to the large number of applicants for admission to medical schools, usually only those students who stand in the upper third of their class can expect to be admitted.

It is highly desirable that a pre-medical student secure a Bachelor's Degree, although some medical schools do not require it as a condition of admission.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

The four years of pre-medical work will not only give the student a foundation for his future medical training, but will also give him an opportunity to secure the broad general education he needs. Medical schools recognize this need for general education and recommend that pre-medical students secure only basic sciences and devote the rest of their time to non-science areas.

The Curriculum is outlined in detail on page 96. Students registered in it are held for the general requirements of Prescribed Curriculums (see page 88). Students pursuing the Pre-Medical Curriculum must obtain a grade point average of 2.5 or better for the required courses in Biology, Chemistry, Physics, and Zoology.

Students who are interested in this Curriculum should consult the supervisor, Professor George M. Moore, Room 101, Nesmith Hall.

Secretarial Curriculum

A large number of college women find pleasant and profitable employment in secretarial positions in private, professional, commercial, and industrial offices. Although in most cases the initial appointment is to a subordinate position in an office organization, the breadth of the college education plus the secretarial skills acquired during the college course give opportunity for early assumption of greater responsibility.

Although the Curriculum is essentially semi-professional, it provides for a rather liberal number of electives with which to secure the general education so essential to success.

Women students who are interested in other aspects of business are advised to consider the Business Curriculum and those interested in less specialization are counselled to consider a major in Economics in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum.

Women who are preparing to teach commercial subjects in high school should consult the description of the Commercial Teacher Preparation Program which appears on page 81.

The Secretarial Curriculum is outlined in detail on page 97. Students registered in it are held for the general requirements expected of students in all prescribed curriculums as set forth on page 88. Secretarial students must earn grades of C or better in the following courses: Secretarial Studies 3-4, 9-10, 17; Secretarial Studies 11, 13, 18, (unless excused in accordance with the statement below); Secretarial Studies 22, Advanced Transcription; Secretarial Studies 23-24 Business Writing; Economics 3, Economic and Commercial Development of the U.S.; Business Administration 1-2, Elementary Accounting; Business Administration 21-22, Commercial Law, or Business Administration 24, Introduction to Business, 4-11 credits (a total of 24 semester credits).

Students transferring from collegiate institutions and high school students with previous training in Secretarial subjects are required to take the following courses: Secretarial Studies 3-4, 9-10, 17; Secretarial Studies 11, 13, 18 (unless excused). These students may be excused from:

Secretarial Studies 11 by passing a 40-period certificate test.

Secretarial Studies 13 by passing a theory and practice test on each of the machines taught.

Secretarial Studies 18 by giving satisfactory evidence of having done acceptable secretarial work in a business office for one year. "One year" shall be interpreted as not less than 50 weeks of full-time work. Full-time work done continuously for two weeks or more may be counted toward a year's work. Part-time work of less than 30 hours a week may not be considered. Only part-time work of 30 hours a week or more done continuously for at least 6 weeks may be counted toward a year's full-time work. The number of hours of acceptable part-time work will be divided by 40 to find the equivalent number of weeks of full-time work. (Work done for relatives will not be considered.)

Transfers and high school students who have had one year of Gregg shorthand (or the equivalent of one year) in another institution and have earned a grade of 80 or better (where the passing grade is 70) will not be allowed to enroll in Secretarial Studies 1 for credit; likewise, those students who have had one year of typewriting (or the equivalent) in another institution and have earned a grade of 80 or better (where the passing grade is 70) will not be allowed to enroll in Secretarial Studies 7 for credit.

Secretarial students who have had Secretarial Studies 5 in the University of New Hampshire or a similar course in another collegiate institution, or one semester of typewriting in high school or preparatory school will be required to enter Secretarial Studies 27 instead of Secretarial Studies 7.

Students who are interested in a program in the Department of Economics and Business Administration should consult the Chairman of the Department, Professor J. A. Hogan, Room 212, Morrill Hall. Students who choose to follow the Secretarial Curriculum will be assigned to Professor Doris E. Tyrrell who will act as the supervisor for the duration of the course.

Social Service Curriculum

Social Service includes, among others, the following fields: family case work, child care, child placement, settlement and neighborhood house, institutional work for defectives and dependents, municipal and county relief work, probation, correctional school and prison service, Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. secretarial service, municipal playground direction, child guidance clinics, community chest work, rural community organization.

For full recognition in most of the fields of Social Service, it is becoming increasingly important for a man or woman to have completed the two-year professional course in a graduate school of social work. The best preparation for admission to such a graduate school is either (1) a broad liberal arts education with 40 to 60 hours of credit in the social sciences, including a major in Sociology, or (2) the Social Service Curriculum. For able students, scholarship aid toward meeting expenses of graduate study is sometimes available.

There is a continuing serious shortage of qualified workers in nearly all the branches of social work. For this reason, a number of students who complete the Social Service Curriculum find employment each year, in public welfare, group work, etc., before they commit themselves to graduate study. The Social Service Curriculum is almost unique among undergraduate pre-professional offerings of its kind in the opportunities it provides for field work. And so its graduates, who have entered employment directly after graduation, have an exceptionally fine record of success.

The program is outlined in detail on page 98. Students registered in it are held to the general requirements of all prescribed curriculums which are set forth on page 83, and in addition must obtain a grade of C or better in 24 semester hour credits from the following courses: Sociology 43, 44, 71, 72, 73, 75, 84, 95, 96, and 97.

It should be noted that while the field work requirements of Sociology 97 may be completed during the college year in connection with a neighboring social agency (see course description) it is strongly recommended that, where possible, students arrange to satisfy the requirement by spending the summer preceding the Senior Year in practical work under the supervision of a settlement, correctional institution, or case work agency in Boston, or some other urban center.

Students interested are advised to consult the supervisor, Professor A. M. Nielson, Room 204H, Demeritt Hall.

PREPARATION FOR TEACHING

UNIVERSITY TEACHER PREPARATION CURRICULUMS

The University of New Hampshire has accepted the responsibility of preparing teachers for the secondary schools of New Hampshire and neighboring states. Two types of teacher preparation programs are offered. General Liberal Arts Curriculum students may follow an advisory program of studies called the university teacher preparation program. There are also Prescribed Curriculums preparing teachers in the fields of Agriculture, Art, Home Economics, Music, and Physical Education. (See following pages.) Students interested in preparing for teaching are urged to become thoroughly familiar with the requirements of all the Teacher Preparation Programs before they make a choice of a particular program. This section of the Catalogue includes descriptions of Teacher Preparation Programs offered by the University, not merely those offered by Department in the College of Liberal Arts.

Courses in Problems in the Teaching of High-School Subjects

The courses in problems in the teaching of high-school subjects are listed on page 147 and are open only to students who have completed the course in Principles and Problems of Teaching in the Secondary Schools (Education 61) in addition to the courses in the subject and related subjects designated as prerequisites*. From these courses in Problems in the Teaching of High-School Subjects the student who plans to complete the university teacher preparation curriculum selects his course in the fields of his teaching major. To be eligible for Supervised Teaching in a subject the student must complete the course in the problems of teaching that subject with a grade of at least C.

Courses in Supervised Teaching

The work in Supervised Teaching is under the direction of the Co-ordinator of Student Teaching. Students teach under the immediate direction of selected classroom teachers in high schools approved by the University.

In the Supervised Teaching Courses the student participates in the conduct of class exercises and in the control of the classroom, at first chiefly as an observer, but gradually entering into teacher responsibilities until complete charge of the classroom is assumed.

This work is required in the university teacher preparation program, but will be open only to students whose applications are approved by the Chairman of the Department of Education and the Co-ordinator of Student Teaching in the subject or subjects in which the applicant desires to do supervised teaching. Applications should be filed in the Office of the Department of Education on or before November 15 of the academic year in which the supervised teaching is to be done. No application will be considered unless the applicant has completed with a grade of at least C the following courses in Education: 41, 42, 52, 61 and, with superior grades in at least 18 semester credits in the subject-matter field in which he desires to teach under supervision.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

The applicant must also complete with a grade of at least C a course in the problems of teaching the subject in which he desires to do supervised teaching.

PRESCRIBED CURRICULUMS IN TEACHER PREPARATION

Agriculture Teacher Preparation Curriculum

A student electing the Teacher Preparation Curriculum in Agriculture must meet the general and specific requirements for a degree described on pages 33 and 34 applicable to all students registered in the College of Agriculture. His course of study will follow a broad general program rather than a specialization in any particular field. Furthermore, he must meet the State Requirements for Certification which include one semester of practice teaching, 8 additional credits of courses in Education, and 8 credits of Agricultural Engineering.

There is a rapidly increasing demand for teachers of Agriculture in our secondary schools. Local school boards are beginning to appreciate more fully the value of instruction in Agriculture, both for the boys who will engage in agriculture after leaving high school, and as electives to maintain the interest of those young men who may wish to take at the University further education in this basic industry. As a result, there are a good many positions open for young men who wish to make the teaching of Agriculture their profession.

Art Education Curriculum

This curriculum is designed to prepare teachers and supervisors of art in the public schools. It is based upon the new demands for teachers who possess developed skills in the arts and a broad general culture in addition to a specialized preparation in Art Education. The satisfactory completion of this curriculum will satisfy the initial certification requirements for teachers of art in the public schools in New Hampshire and in other states maintaining certification requirements.

Freshmen who plan to enter this Curriculum should elect Elementary Drawing and Design (Arts 23-24) in their first-year program.

A grade of C or better must be achieved in all Arts courses required in the curriculum.

Students who wish to prepare themselves to teach other subjects in addition to Art can do so by using their elective hours for this purpose. Such a program should be worked out in consultation with Professor T. O. Marshall, of the Department of Education.

Students registered in the Curriculum (see page 99) are held for the general requirements expected of students in all Prescribed Curriculums which are set forth on page 88.

Interested students should consult the supervisor, Professor George R. Thomas, Room 209, Hewitt Hall.

Commercial Teacher Preparation Program

This program is an option in the Prescribed Secretarial Curriculum and is not a prescribed curriculum in itself.

Students preparing to teach commercial subjects in high school should include in their Freshman programs Secretarial Studies 7-8 and electives from

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Group III; in their Sophomore programs, Secretarial Studies 1-2, Business Administration 1-2, and 24, Economics 3, Education 41, 42 and an elective from Group I; in their Junior programs, Secretarial Studies 3-4, 9-10, 13, and 23-24, Business Administration 21-22 and Education 52, and 61; in the Summer Session between their Junior and Senior years Education-Commercial Subjects 94, Supervised Teaching in Commercial Subjects. Such students should enroll for 18 semester credits in at least three semesters in order to have the second semester of the Senior Year free for supervised teaching.

Interested students should consult Professor Doris Tyrrell, Room 4, Morrill Hall.

Home Economics Teacher Preparation Curriculum

The Home Economics Teacher Preparation Curriculum for secondary-school teaching and extension work, presented on pages 54, aims to give adequate preparation to prospective teachers in the subject matter of the several phases of the field of Home Economics; to acquaint them with educational procedures and modern methods of teaching, as well as to give a general education. The program is professional in character.

The Teacher Preparation Curriculum provides for courses in general as well as special methods. Students spend the first part of the second semester of the Senior Year in Supervised Teaching in approved high schools. The last three to four weeks of the semester are spent on the campus in an intensive seminar where deficiencies revealed during the practice teaching period may be translated into assets. Graduate study is necessary for students who plan to be teachers of Home Economics in colleges and universities.

Women students who are interested in entering extension work, either as home demonstration agents or as boys' and girls' club agents in the 4-H Club program, are advised to follow the Teacher Preparation Program. An opportunity is offered to such students to obtain some practical experience in extension work through Home Economics 48, Field Work in Institutional Practice and Extension, during the summer between the Junior and Senior Years. A limited number of opportunities to do practice extension work during the latter part of the Senior Year are available to women students who have shown special aptitude in previous field experience in extension work.

The Curriculum is outlined in detail on page 54. Students who are interested should consult the supervisor, Professor Anna M. Light, Room 209, Pettee Hall.

Music Education Curriculum

This Curriculum is designed to prepare teachers of music for the public schools. It is based on the new demands for teachers possessing sound musicianship and a broad general culture in addition to a specialized preparation in Music Education. The satisfactory completion of this Curriculum will satisfy the initial certificate requirements for teachers of music in the public schools in New Hampshire and in most other states.

To be admitted to this Curriculum the student must give evidence of having a sound musical background. Freshmen who plan to enter this Curriculum must elect Music 9-10 and four hours of Applied Music in their first-year programs.

A grade of C or better must be achieved in all Music courses required in the Curriculum.

Public-school music teachers must maintain a satisfactory standing musically with other professional musicians in the community and should be able to play or sing acceptably. For this reason 16 semester credits in Applied

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Music are required before graduation: 8 semester credits in one field and 3 semester credits divided among other fields of Applied Music. In addition, all candidates must pass an examination in piano and voice which will demonstrate ability to perform acceptably:

Piano

1. Four-octave major and minor scales.
2. Two of the two-part Bach Inventions or their equivalent in difficulty to be drawn from the classic repertoire.
3. Play from memory any piece of moderate difficulty.
4. Read from sight simple accompaniments and four-part harmony.

Voice

1. Sing from memory two songs of moderate difficulty.
2. Sing creditably from sight a simple song.
3. Sing acceptably from sight any voice part of a choral composition.

Other Instruments

Music Education majors must attain a minimum designated proficiency in one instrument from each of the following groups: brass, woodwind, string, and percussion. These various requirements may be removed by special examination if the student is sponsored by the instructor in the field in which the examination is to be undertaken.*

Recitals

Students enrolled in the Music-Education Curriculum must accumulate a minimum of 24 points in the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years. Attendance at each concert or recital constitutes one point.

All Music-Education candidates must take a voice and piano audition at the end of the Junior Year, and an oral comprehensive examination covering all fields of music preparation before entering upon practice teaching.

The Curriculum is outlined in detail on page 100. Students who are interested should consult the supervisor, Mr. J. L. Davis, Room 204, Ballard Hall.

Physical Education Teacher Preparation Curriculum (Men)

For men students who plan to prepare themselves for positions as teachers of Physical Education or Directors of Physical Education, the University has organized the Physical Education Teacher Preparation Curriculum for Men (see page 102). This Curriculum will enable men to prepare themselves to teach in two subject-matter fields as well as in Physical Education. It is open to men who have satisfactorily completed the Freshman Year, and are approved by the Department of Physical Education for admission to Physical Education as a field of concentration. A grade of C or better must be achieved in P. E. 23, Principles of Physical Education; P. E. 61, Problems of Teaching in Physical Education; P. E. 65, Administration of Physical Education in Secondary Schools; and in 24 semester credits in the second teaching major.

This Curriculum requires the satisfactory completion of a second teaching major of 24 semester credits and a teaching minor of 12 semester credits in subjects taught in high schools. Students who are interested in this program should consult with Professor Carl Lundholm, Room 5A, Field House.

*By permission of the instructor a student with less than the eight hours of required study may request faculty examination to satisfy a major instrument requirement.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Physical Education Teacher Preparation Curriculum (Women)

For women students who plan to prepare themselves for positions as teachers of Physical Education or for positions in Recreation, the University has organized the Physical Education Teacher Preparation Curriculum for Women. (See page 104). This Curriculum will enable women to elect at the end of the Sophomore Year, the Physical Education Option or the Recreation Option. Furthermore, students have the opportunity, if they so desire, to prepare themselves to teach in a subject-matter field as well as in Physical Education. Finally, those interested in going into Physical Therapy after leaving the University, may, by petition, make approved substitutions in the program. The Curriculum is open to women who have satisfactorily completed the Freshman Year and are approved by the Department of Physical Education for Women for admission to that field of concentration. It provides an opportunity to teach Physical Education under supervision in near-by schools and recreation centers.

Students in this curriculum who are planning to teach in areas in addition to Physical Education are required to complete with an average grade of C or better a second teaching major of 18 semester credits in subjects taught in high schools.

For students choosing the Physical Education Option, the following courses offered by other departments are suggested as valuable electives: English 35, Public Speaking; Psychology 51, Psychology of Childhood; Psychology 47, Mental Hygiene; Music 33-34, Appreciation of Music; Sociology 1, 4, Principles of Sociology and Problems of Social Disorganization; Sociology 39, Rural Sociology; Sociology 43, Community Organization; Physical Education 24, Organized Camping is also recommended. Students in this curriculum are advised to choose non-professional electives whenever possible. Those planning to enter graduate study should elect a foreign language. In the Physical Education Option a grade of C or better must be achieved in 24 semester credits of the Physical Education courses required in the Curriculum.

Students choosing the Recreation Option are advised to become skilled in at least two of these four fields: art, drama, music, or physical education. The following courses offered by other departments are suggested as valuable electives for recreation specialists: Arts; Botany 6, Systematic Botany; Music; English 35, Public Speaking; Forestry 37, Forest Recreation; Government 1 or 2; Home Economics 83, Home and Family Life; Philosophy 4, Ethics; Psychology 1, General Psychology; Psychology 47, Mental Hygiene; Sociology 33, Cultural Anthropology and Ethnology.

Recreation students interested in Forestry Recreation are advised to take Forestry 36, Special Problems (Woodcraft and Nature Study) and Forestry 37, Forest Recreation.

To make certain that the Recreation Option contains some experience under working conditions, each student is required to secure before graduation a minimum of 8 points of community recreation or camping credit in addition to the scholastic requirements of the Curriculum. This will be gained through work in hotels, playgrounds, community centers or camps where supervision will be authorized, regular reports submitted by the student, and the grade of work reported by the employer. Each week of work will constitute one point.

The students in the Recreation Option must complete with a grade of C or better, 24 semester credits of the Physical Education, Art, Music, and Drama courses offered in the Curriculum.

Under Physical Education 1, 11, 2, 12, 3, 4, 5, 6, Physical Education students are required to include certain activities in the section reserved for students in the P.E.T.P. Curriculum. During the Freshman (or Sophomore) year, the student must register for one quarter each of the following in the order listed: hockey, tennis, basketball, folk dancing, skiing, badminton, softball and archery; in the Sophomore year, hockey, recreation workshop, volleyball, tennis (int.); in the Junior year, modern dance (elem.), modern dance (int.), stunts and tumbling, and golf. Students in the Recreation Option must take Individuals. For those who are quite highly skilled in the activities mentioned, substitutions may be made with the approval of the supervisor. Further dance and other activities not listed are included in courses for students in the prescribed Curriculum.

Students who are following any Teacher Preparation Curriculum in the University are urged to include for Physical Education, American country dancing, folk dancing, community games, hockey, basketball, and softball.

For information concerning this Curriculum consult with the supervisor, Professor Marion Beckwith, 101A, New Hampshire Hall.

Guidance of Students Preparing To Teach

Students who come to the University of New Hampshire for the purpose of preparing themselves for the teaching profession should consult with the Chairman of the Department of Education early in their Freshman year. Other students who are seriously considering teaching as a possible profession are urged to consult with the Chairman of the Department of Education before making a decision.

While the University has organized curriculums designed to prepare students for the profession of teaching, it also recognizes that it is important that students be prepared to meet the teacher certification requirements of the states in which they may desire to teach. The Department of Education endeavors to keep its files of teacher certification requirements up to date. Students preparing to teach in states other than New Hampshire should, before the close the Sophomore year, consult the Department of Education concerning the requirements of the states in which they desire to teach and the most effective ways of meeting those requirements.

This program is sufficiently flexible to provide the differentiation necessary to meet the needs of students who may be planning to teach: (1) English and the Foreign Languages, (2) English and the Social Studies, (3) Mathematics and the Biological or Physical Sciences, or (4) the Commercial Subjects.*

A PLAN FOR INDEPENDENT STUDY

In order to stimulate the superior student and to develop his initiative, the Faculty of the College has approved a plan for independent study, which will permit Seniors who have demonstrated superior ability to take a special program replacing in part courses usually taken in the Senior year. Independent study enables a student to pursue intensive work in a limited field of study or to integrate the subject matter of two or more fields.

(1) A Senior in the College of Liberal Arts may register for not less than 6 or more than a total of 12 semester credits of Independent Study for the year, provided: (a) his cumulative academic average at the end of his Junior year is 3.0 or better, and (b) he has submitted a plan for Independent Study that has been approved by his Supervisor and the Dean.

*The requirements of the State of New Hampshire are 21 semester credits in education courses, including 6 semester credits in supervised student teaching, and 18 semester credits in one or more fields usually taught in secondary schools. For detailed information concerning requirements, consult the Department of Education, Room 3, Murkland Hall.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

(2) This student shall be called a College Scholar.

(3) A College Scholar who registers for Independent Study may not carry more than 18 semester credits per semester and is not relieved of any University, College, or Prescribed Curriculum requirements. Independent Study credits may at the discretion of the Supervisor be submitted in whole or in part for major course requirements in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum or for elective credits in a Prescribed Curriculum.

(4) A College Scholar who has registered for Independent Study will be assigned for guidance to a member of the staff of his major department or Prescribed Curriculum.

(5) A College Scholar pursuing Independent Study may either (a) work upon a project involving individual work, such as a long essay, a series of experiments, gathering and interpretation of data, creative writing, etc., or (b) prepare for a special comprehensive examination. (Such special comprehensive examination or paper may not be substituted for a required departmental comprehensive examination or paper.)

(6) The result of a College Scholar's activity under the program of Independent Study will be judged by three members of the Faculty, appointed by his Supervisor from the staff of his department or curriculum or from related departments or curriculums or from both.

REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREES

The Degree of Bachelor of Science is conferred upon those students in the College of Liberal Arts who successfully complete the requirements of a Prescribed Curriculum. The Degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred upon all students in the College of Liberal Arts who successfully complete the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum.

A student's candidacy for a degree will be determined by his satisfaction of the university, college, major, or curriculum requirements in force at the time of his admission to the college either as a beginning student or a transfer. A student may petition to satisfy the university, college, major or curriculum requirements that may be in force at any time during his residence. Such a student shall be held, however, for all the academic requirements of the Catalogue under which he seeks a degree; not a portion thereof. The new Catalogue becomes effective on July 1 of each year.

Each candidate for a degree in the College of Liberal Arts must complete successfully 128 semester credits, and achieve a 1.8 grade point average in all courses completed in the University. In addition, he must complete the requirements given below and those of the major field, or prescribed curriculum, as stated in the preceding pages.

A. General University Requirements

Physical Education for Men	Freshman and Sophomore Years
Physical Education for Women	Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior Years
Military and Air Science for Men	Freshman and Sophomore Years

B. General College Requirements

1. Special Freshman Requirements

*a. English 1-2, Freshman English

*Not counted toward fulfillment of Major or Group requirements.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

*b. A biological science (Biology 1-2) or a physical science (Chemistry 1-2, †3-4; Geology 1-2; Mathematics 2, 13; or 11, 13; Physics 1-2)

2. Special History Requirement (to be taken in the Freshman Year unless the curriculum lists it in the Sophomore Year)

*History 1, 2, Introduction to Contemporary Civilization

3. All Freshmen in the College of Liberal Arts are assigned on registration to advisers who counsel them until they have officially selected major departments or prescribed curriculums. Official declaration of a major or a prescribed curriculum is accomplished by a special form which must bear both the adviser's and the supervisor's signatures.
4. Students in both the General Liberal Arts Curriculum and Prescribed Curriculums are advised against over-specialization. Although no attempt is made to limit by regulation the number of courses in a major or the professional courses in a Prescribed Curriculum, more than 36 semester credits in courses in the major department, or more than 66 semester credits in professional courses in a Prescribed Curriculum, are deemed to constitute excessive concentration. Supervisors will counsel students who seem to be concentrating to their detriment to elect courses more likely to contribute to the breadth of their education. The Dean of the College will consult with the supervisors with regard to over-specialization as it may appear in the programs of individual students.

C. General Liberal Arts Curriculum Requirements

Each candidate for a degree in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum must satisfy (1) the General University Requirements, (2) the General College Requirements as stated above, and (3) in addition must complete the requirements listed below and those of the major as described in preceding pages.

1. Special Language Requirement

All students pursuing the General Liberal Arts Curriculum are required to pass a reading test in Classical Greek, French, German, Italian, Latin, or Spanish before graduation. This test will be based on two years of secondary-school language training. Graduates of normal schools or teachers colleges who are pursuing the General Liberal Arts Curriculum to qualify for a degree in the field of elementary education are exempt from the language requirement.

2. Group Requirements

A student whose major is included in Groups I, II, or III shall present for the satisfaction of that group requirement some course outside of his major field, one not offered in fulfillment of any other college requirement. A student may not offer in fulfillment of the Group I requirements the elementary course in the language in which he satisfies the special language requirement.

*Not counted toward fulfillment of Major or Group requirements.

†Chemistry 3-4 is required for pre-medical students and all who intend to take advanced work in chemistry.

Students who expect to major in physics should not register for Physics 1-2 but elect sufficient mathematics to be able to schedule Mathematics 17-18 and Physics 21-22 in the Sophomore Year.

Reading tests will be given by the Department of Languages in September, during Orientation Week; in January, before the registration period; and as part of the final examination in French 2, German 2, Greek 2, Italian 2, Latin 2, and Spanish 2. Tests may be taken by individual students at other times only in exceptional circumstances.

Courses in other departments closely related to the major courses may be counted with the consent of the major supervisor and the College Dean. Departments shall designate in the Catalogue in their description of courses those which will not count for major credit. In addition to satisfactorily completing (1) 24 semester credits in the major field and (2) the divisional requirements, each student, at the discretion of his major department, may be required to:

a. Pass a comprehensive examination in his major field or

b. Prepare a satisfactory paper on a subject approved by his supervisor, in his field of concentration.

D Prescribed Curriculum Requirements

1. A student registered in a Prescribed Curriculum must satisfy the General University Requirements and the General College Requirements described in previous pages.
2. Inasmuch as all Prescribed Curriculums are intended to furnish professional or semi-professional preparation, students selecting them are held for the successful completion of all the courses prescribed and generally in the sequence in which they are arranged in the Curriculum.

REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREES

Baccalaureate Degree

Each candidate for a degree must complete 144 semester credits including the courses required in one of the Four-Year Curriculums, and achieve a grade-point average of at least 1.8. These degrees are: Bachelor of Science in Chemistry, Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering, Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering, Bachelor of Science in Building Construction, Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering, Bachelor of Science in Mathematics, Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering, and Bachelor of Science in Physics.

Professional Degree

Mechanical, Electrical, and Civil Engineering graduates of the University of New Hampshire are eligible to register as candidates for professional degrees in these three branches of Engineering.

These degrees will be granted, after the preparation and submission of acceptable thesis, to those having not less than four year's satisfactory professional experience subsequent to the Bachelor's Degree, in which the applicants have wholly or in part supervised, directed, or designed engineering work; or have been in responsible charge of instruction or research in Engineering. The acceptability of the thesis and professional experience is determined by an Examining Committee.

PROCEDURE — The procedure for candidates for professional Engineering degrees is as follows:

(1) Prepare an outline for a thesis after consultation with the Chairman of the Department concerned. This consultation may be by letter.

(2) When the thesis subject is accepted by the Chairman of the Department in which the degree is to be taken, the candidate will be registered in the Recorder's Office. This registration must be completed by October 1 of the academic year in which the degree is to be conferred.

(3) The first draft of the thesis must be submitted to the professor in charge not later than March 1, and the complete thesis in its final form by May 1.

(4) Pass an oral examination at the University covering the candidate's professional practice and the engineering principles underlying the thesis.

THESIS — The thesis must be typewritten upon standard paper, 8½ by 11 inches medium weight, neatly bound in black cloth, and gilt-lettered on the first cover with title, name of author, degree sought, and year of graduation. The title page should bear the following statements:

COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY

"A thesis submitted to the University of New Hampshire in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the professional degree of mechanical engineer (electrical engineer, civil engineer)."

Whenever a thesis is printed in any periodical, it must be designated as having been accepted as a Professional Engineering Thesis by the University of New Hampshire.

Two bound copies must be filed before Commencement Day, one with the Librarian and one with the Chairman of the Department in which the major is done.

The second page of each copy of the thesis shall bear the date of approval and the signature of each member of the examining committee following the statement:

"This thesis has been examined and approved."

CURRICULUMS

The College of Technology offers the following Four-Year Curriculums:

Building Construction Curriculum

This Curriculum which is offered by the Department of Civil Engineering is designed to give the student basic training and instruction in engineering and general building construction practice; to acquaint him with and to train him in the problems connected with the construction of light buildings and houses; to develop in the student an understanding of and appreciation for the relationships of the client, architect, engineer, builder, manufacturer, and public agencies in planning, designing, financing, and erecting public and private buildings. Inquiries for additional information should be directed to the Chairman of the Department of Civil Engineering.

Chemical Engineering Curriculum

Chemical Engineering is that branch of engineering which involves the application of chemistry, physics, mathematics, and fundamental engineering principles to the design, construction, operation, control, and improvement of equipment for carrying out chemical processes on an industrial scale at the lowest possible cost. The Chemical Engineering Curriculum, therefore, is designed to give the student basic training in the physical sciences, engineering principles, and economics, and thus enable him to become a member of this profession. Although Chemical Engineering is a distinct profession, chemical engineers are considered to be members of the chemical profession as well as of the engineering profession and a considerable portion of the Chemical Engineering Curriculum is devoted to the science of Chemistry. However, emphasis is placed not upon the laboratory phases of Chemistry, but upon the large-scale manufacture of chemical products.

Chemistry Curriculum

This Curriculum is intended to prepare the student for the career of a professional chemist in industry and to give a good foundation for further study in graduate schools leading to original and independent research.

Instruction is imparted by lectures, recitations, and carefully supervised laboratory work. The laboratory study is largely individual and the course work of each student is planned to furnish a broad knowledge of chemical science. The student is given a training in either German or French to enable him to read with ease the chemical literature, and a grounding in Mathematics and Physics necessary for the later courses in Chemistry. In the Senior Year an independent research project, which permits the student to use the reference library and chemical periodicals throughout the course of the laboratory investigation, is undertaken.

Civil Engineering Curriculum

This Curriculum is designed to give the student theoretical and practical instruction in the principles upon which the practice of Civil Engineering is based, and to allow him the opportunity to apply these principles to problems of professional practice in the classroom, in the design room, and in the field.

Civil Engineering, the oldest of the engineering professions, covers a broad field of activity, including Topographical, Structural, Transportation, Hydraulic and Sanitary Engineering. This Curriculum places about equal emphasis upon each of these various branches.

Electrical Engineering Curriculum

The Electrical Engineering Curriculum is intended to meet the demands of young men fitting themselves for professional Engineering in connection with the various applications of electricity.

Courses are presented by lectures, recitations, and laboratory practice in such a manner as to make the material of immediate service to the graduate, as well as to prepare him to understand the constantly increasing number of new developments in this field.

Technology Curriculum in Mathematics

The Technology Curriculum in Mathematics is intended to provide an education in the fundamentals of pure and applied Mathematics. It also affords a training in the sciences closely allied to Mathematics. The study of German and French is included so that the student can read the mathematical literature in these languages. Available for the use of the student is the reading room in Demeritt Hall containing mathematical periodicals and books. This Curriculum offers a preparation which serves equally well for either graduate study or research in industry or research in the various government agencies. In the broader sense it aims to furnish a training useful in any scientific activity.

Mechanical Engineering Curriculum

The Mechanical Engineering Curriculum is intended to meet the demands of young men fitting themselves for professional practice in Mechanical Engineering. The courses in the Curriculum are designed to give the student training in the basic physical sciences and in the fundamentals of engineering; later courses apply the fundamentals to the practice of Mechanical Engineering. Throughout the Curriculum the theoretical work is supplemented by extensive laboratory practice.

Physics Curriculum

The Technology Curriculum in Physics is intended to offer basic training in fundamentals, supplemented by laboratory work, in the various branches of Physics. Opportunity is given in the Senior Year for experimental investigation in some of the fields of Physics under guidance of staff members. Such a curriculum prepares one equally well either for basic research in industry or the various government research organizations or for continued academic study toward the more advanced degrees.

COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY

Note — Agricultural Engineering is offered by the College of Agriculture (see page 46). Basic science and some engineering courses in the Curriculum of Agricultural Engineering are given by the College of Technology.

Alumni Representation

An Advisory Committee of Alumni of the College of Technology, composed of men in direct contact with industry and practical professional affairs, serves to keep the Faculty in touch with developments in the several fields which attract our graduates. Members of this committee also serve as consultants when important changes in curriculums, Faculty personnel, and policies of administration are considered. The members are:

John T. Croghan, B.S. in M.E., '08, 574 Chestnut Street, Waban, Mass.

The Graduate School

ALBERT F. DAGGETT, Dean

The Graduate School, which has offered instruction since 1903, has for its objective the bringing together of faculty and qualified students in a spirit of scholarship and research. The graduate student is given opportunity to specialize in some field of knowledge, and to develop a maturity of thought and attitude toward his professional field, so that both his professional and his cultural life are enhanced. Graduate work is offered by members of the University departments of instruction and research. Administrative functions and supervision of advanced students are delegated to the Dean of the Graduate School and the Graduate Council.

Degrees

Graduate programs are offered by the following departments: Agricultural and Biological Chemistry, Agricultural Economics, Agronomy, Animal Husbandry, Bacteriology, Biology, Botany, Chemical Engineering, Chemistry, Civil Engineering, Dairy Husbandry, Electrical Engineering, Entomology, Horticulture, Mathematics, Mechanical Engineering, Physics, Poultry Husbandry, and Zoology leading to the Master of Science degree; Economics, English, Government, History, Languages, Psychology, and Sociology leading to the Master of Arts degree, and Education leading to the Master of Education degree.

Assistantships and Scholarships

Graduate assistantships are available in a number of departments. The work required may be in the nature of research, teaching, or general service. For information regarding assistantships, one should direct inquiries to the chairman of the department concerned.

A limited number of graduate scholarships are available each year. The recipient of such a scholarship is exempted from the payment of tuition. Requirements for the awards are: 1) a superior undergraduate record, and 2) the successful completion of a qualifying examination. For information concerning scholarships one should direct inquiries to the Dean of the Graduate School.

Information

For detailed information concerning admission, requirements for degrees, description of courses open to graduate students, and other matters not covered here, inquiries should be directed to the Dean of the Graduate School. The Graduate School issues its own bulletin which may be obtained upon request to the Office of the Graduate School.

Description of Courses

EXPLANATION OF ARRANGEMENT

The title of the course is given in small capital letters, the arabic numeral designates the particular course. Odd numerals indicate courses normally offered in the first semester; even numerals indicate courses normally offered in the second semester. Arabic numerals enclosed in parentheses indicate that a course is repeated in the semester following. Thus course 1 (1) is offered in the first semester and is repeated in the second semester.

Every course is assigned to one of 22 examination groups. As all courses in the same examination group have their final examination at the same time, a student may not register for two courses with the same examination number. Courses with examination group number 0 have no final examination, so that more than one course in this group may be scheduled by a student. For the examination group number of each course, see the time and room schedule on page 209. Courses with a single section ordinarily are assigned to an examination group which is reserved for classes meeting at the same time. These groups are: classes meeting Monday, Wednesday, Friday at 8 A.M., Group I; Monday, Wednesday, Friday at 9 A.M., V; Monday, Wednesday, Friday at 10 A.M., IX; Monday, Wednesday, Friday at 11 A.M., XIII; Monday, Wednesday, Friday at 12 noon, VI; Monday, Wednesday, Friday at 1 P.M., XX; Monday, Wednesday, Friday at 2 P.M., XXI; Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday at 9 A.M., XV; Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday at 10 A.M., XI; Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday at 11 A.M., VII; Tuesday, Thursday P.M., III.

Courses numbered 1-50 cannot be counted for graduate credit. Courses numbered 50-100 are for Juniors, Seniors, and Graduate Students. They are not open to Freshmen and Sophomores.

Following the title is the course description and the name of the instructor.

The next paragraph gives the following information in the order indicated (1) prerequisites, if any; (2) the number of hours of recitations or laboratory periods required each week; (3) the number of semester credits the course will count in the total required for graduation. Lectures and recitations are fifty minutes in length. Laboratory periods are usually two and one-half hours in length.

Abbreviations have been employed to indicate the number of hours of work required of students in lecture, recitation, and laboratory, and the number of credits given for satisfactory completion of each course. The abbreviations should be interpreted as follows:

Cr.	Semester hour credit
Lab.	Laboratory
Lec.	Lecture
Prereq.	Prerequisite
Rec.	Recitation

All courses (unless otherwise marked) are open to students who have passed the prerequisites.

An elective course will be given only when there is a minimum of five students registered therefor.

If the numerals designating a course running through both semesters are connected by a hyphen, the first semester, or its equivalent, is a prerequisite for the second semester. If the numerals are separated by a comma, properly qualified students may take the second semester without having had the first.

Students must register for the number of credits or within the range of credits shown in the Catalogue description of a course.

Lessons in Applied Music are based on $\frac{1}{2}$ -hour private instruction. One semester hour of credit will be given for one lesson; two semester hours of credit will be given for two lessons. Five one-hour practice periods will be sought out by the music students themselves. The special semester fee for Applied Music is \$25 for one lesson a week, and \$50 for two lessons a week. These fees include the use of practice room for the required preparations.

Majors in Applied Music are required to present 16 semester hours in applied music taken over a period of four years. Two lessons per week are required each semester. Four semester credits taken in the Freshman Year are regarded as prerequisite to entrance into the Applied Music option.

Registration in Applied Music courses is open to all students in the University, subject to approval by the Department Chairman. A student may register for the same course in successive semesters.

†23, (23). PIANO. The methods of presentation and the material used vary with each pupil and his degree of advancement. With beginners, training is given in the fundamentals of pianoforte technique and in the reading of keyboard music. As early as is practicable, emphasis is placed on musical values, musicianship, and sound piano technique. For this purpose, the literature employed is selected from the masters. Musical understanding is developed and quality of performance is stressed. With the attainment of advanced technique, the student's repertory is broadened to include works of all periods of literature: pre-Bach, J. S. Bach, C. P. E. Bach, Scarlatti, Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, the romantic composers, the post-romantic, and present-day contemporary composers. Mr. Steele, Mr. Bartley, Mr. Davis. 1 or 2 lessons; 1-2 cr.

†24, (24). ORGAN. Students must possess reasonable keyboard facility before attempting the study of organ and should secure the permission of the organ instructor before enrolling for the course. The material used in the organ includes Graded Materials for the Organ by Rogers, preludes and fugues by Bach, sonatas by Mendelssohn as well as compositions by contemporary American composers. Since the aim of the course is primarily to prepare students for playing in church services, emphasis will be laid on hymn playing and also on providing suitable organ accompaniment for soloist, quartet, or chorus. During the Junior and Senior Years the larger compositions by Frank, Widor and Guilmant will be studied. Mr. Bartley. 1 or 2 lessons; 1-2 cr.

†25, (25). VIOLIN. Lessons in violin playing are adjusted to the individual needs of the pupil. A sound technical foundation is imparted with special stress on clear, resonant tone production, accurate intonation, fluency, and velocity. Technical exercises, studies, and solos are selected to correct the student's deficiencies and to develop and promote his talents and artistic self-expression. Solos are selected from the best in violin literature and are studied as concert pieces and also as applications of the numerous items of basic technique. Mr. Bleecker. 1 or 2 lessons; 1-2 cr.

†26, (26). VOICE. Instruction in voice will seek to develop those qualities which are essential for intelligent interpretations, such as correct posture, breathing, pure tone, resonance, clear enunciation, and technical facility. Each voice is given the treatment best suited to its individual needs. A higher ideal than the perfection of mere mechanical skill is sought, namely a musicianly style of singing and a thorough appreciation of the best works of the masters, both classic and modern. Mr. Bratton and Miss Majchrzak. 1 or 2 lessons; 1-2 cr.

†27, (27). VIOLONCELLO, VIOLA, STRINGBASS. The course consists of instructions in tuning, bowing, and in positions, as well as a thorough grounding in technical studies, solos, and ensemble literature. Mr. Bleecker. 1 or 2 lessons; 1-2 cr.

†Students registered in formal and applied music courses are required to attend all student and faculty recitals as a part of the assigned work of the course.

†30, (30). PERCUSSION. The study and mastery of the snare drum rudiments including the 266 American drum rudiments as adopted by the National Association of Rudimentary Drummers. The technique, tuning, and sticking of the pedal and hand timpani. Cymbals and all other percussion effects (claves, maracas, triangle, tambourine, woodblock, chimes, etc.) The playing of the glockenspiel, bells, or bell lyra, as well as xylophone is offered under this classification. Mr. Reynolds. 1 or 2 lessons; 1-2 cr.

Theory and Composition

†*9-10. SIGHTSINGING, EAR TRAINING, AND DICTATION I. A course designed to provide intensive training in the acquisition of the basic essentials of music.
